RETURNING CAST — The Buckeyes return 40 lettermen from last year. Four players, who lettered previously but did not earn letters last year due to injuries also return — tailback Carlos Snow, wide receiver Greg Beatty, outside linebacker John Kacherski and inside linebacker Andy Gurd, who moves to outside backer this year.

BOWLING OVER THE OPPONENTS — Seven of Ohio State's 1991 opponents played in bowl games last year: Arizona (Aloha), Louisville (Fiesta), Illinois (Hall of Fame), Michigan State (John Hancock), Iowa (Rose), Indiana (Peach) and Michigan (Gator).

BIG TEN TEAM STATS — Ohio State finished in the top five of every Big Ten team stat in 1990. The Buckeyes were fifth in rushing offense (193.8), third in passing offense (198.5), fifth in total offense (392.3) and third in scoring offense (30.7). Defensively, OSU was second in passing defense (105.7), fourth in rushing defense (137.1), third in total defense (317.0) and second in scoring defense (17.9). In the kicking department, OSU was fourth in net punting (34.9), second in punt returns (14.1) and third in kickoff returns (19.6).

AN INDIVIDUAL LOOK — Several Buckeyes figured among the Big Ten individual leaders. Tailback Robert Smith was fifth in rushing yards per game (96.7 ypg.) and led the league in yards per carry (6.5). He also was second in all-purpose running (135.6), seventh in kick returns (20.9) and 15th in total offense (96.7). Quarterback Greg Frey was fourth in both passing efficiency (128.4) and total offense (170.6). Jeff Bohlman was second in punting (42.5) and kicker Tim Williams seventh in scoring (6.9 ppg). In the receiving department, flanker Jeff Graham and split end Bobby Olive each ranked in the top ten in catches per game and receiving yards per game. Graham averaged 3.6 catches and 19.5 yards, while Olive's figures were 3.4 and 15.9. All of the above figures were based on 11 games.

RECORD SETTER — Robert Smith's rushing total of 1,126 yards last year easily eclipsed the OSU freshman single-season rushing record of 867 yards, set by Archie Griffin in 1972.

A DANDY DUO — Smith and Griffin are the only freshmen since 1945 to lead the Buckeyes in rushing. Griffin went on to lead OSU all four years and picked up two Heisman Trophys along the way.

ONE, TWO, THREE — Greg Frey threw for 2,062 yards last year, becoming the first Ohio State quarterback to top the 2,000 yard plateau three years in a row. Frey finished his career with 6,316 yards through the air, a total that places him second on the all-time OSU passing list.

NUMBER CHANGES — Several players have changed jersey numbers this year. Robert Smith will wear 26 instead of 32, offensive guard Mark Bean has switched from 98 to 75, wide receiver Joey Galloway from 27 to 7, defensive end Pete Beckman from 74 to 76 and linebacker Alex Rodriguez has gone from 41 to 48.

SWITCHING POSITIONS — The Ohio State coaching staff implemented a number of position changes during spring ball. Among the most significant, Preston Harrison has moved from quarterback to outside linebacker, Alex Rodriguez from fullback to inside linebacker, Andy Gurd from inside to outside backer, Mark Bean from defensive tackle to offensive guard and Dante Lee from tailback to flanker/tailback.

MEDICAL UPDATE — John Kacherski (knee), Carlos Snow (hip), Greg Beatty (knee) and Andy Gurd (shoulder) all missed either all or most of the 1990 season with injuries. But Kacherski, Snow and Gurd practiced last spring and have been given medical clearance for the fall, and Beatty, who did not practice in the spring, is expected to be cleared for full duty in the fall. Tight end Jeff Ellis, who missed much of the second half of the season after spraining an ankle against Indiana, is also 100 percent.

REALIGNING THE STAFF — There are several position changes and several new faces on the OSU coaching staff this year. Gene Huey has moved from wide receivers to running backs and Bob Palcic from the offensive line to defensive tackles. New members of the staff include Elliot Uzelac (assistant head coach and offensive coordinator), Joe Hollis (offensive line), Jerry Sullivan (wide receivers) and Larry Coyer (defensive backs)

Defensive back Vinnie Clark led the Big Ten in interceptions last year with seven and was a first round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the NFL draft.

After battling knee injuries the past two years, outside linebacker John Kacherski hopes to stay healthy this season.

John Cooper is in his fourth year as head football coach at The Ohio State University. The former National Coach of the Year has led the Buckeyes to a 15-8-1 record and consecutive bowl appearances each of the past two seasons. Additionally, his last two teams have gone into the final game of the regular season playing for a share of the Big Ten title.

Cooper's record with the Buckeyes is 19-14-2. After a 4-6-1 injury-riddled first season in 1988, he directed the 1989 Buckeyes to an 8-4 ledger and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl. This past year, Ohio State notched a 7-4-1 record and played in the Liberty Bowl.

An excellent recruiter, Cooper has rebuilt the Buckeyes into a championship contender by luring the nation's top prep talent to the Ohio State campus. His recruiting classes annually have been rated as among the best in the country.

The twenty-first head football coach in Ohio State history, Cooper was named to his present position on Dec. 31, 1987. Prior to Ohio State, he enjoyed three very successful years at Arizona State (1985-87), and before that he spent eight equally productive seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa (1977-84).

The 54-year old Cooper boasts an impressive 14-year won-lost record of 101-54-4 as a head coach. He was National Coach of the Year in 1986, when he led Arizona State to its first ever Pac 10 title, a berth in the Rose Bowl and an overall record of 10-1-1. In his eight seasons at Tulsa, his credits include five Missouri Valley Conference championships and a 21-game winning streak before moving on to ASU.

Cooper is a native of Powell, Tenn., a small, rural community just outside of Knoxville. After graduating from high school, he served two years in the U.S. Army before enrolling at Iowa State on a football scholarship. He played running back and safety for the Cyclones and was team captain and most valuable player as a senior.

He received his bachelor's degree from Iowa State in 1962 and began his coaching career the following fall — as the Cyclones' freshman mentor.

Cooper left his alma mater following the 1962 season to become a full-time assistant for Tommy Prothro at Oregon State. The 1964 Beavers won the Pac 8 title and played in the 1965 Rose Bowl.

Cooper accompanied Prothro to UCLA in 1965 and was rewarded with a second straight trip to Pasadena when the '65 Bruins dethroned Oregon State as Pac 8 champs.

In 1967, Cooper was named defensive coordinator at the University of Kansas under Pepper Rodgers. He called the defensive signals for the Jayhawks for five years before leaving after the 1971 season to become an assistant on Fran Curci's staff at Kentucky.

After four years at Kentucky and 15 total years as an assistant coach, Cooper's first head coaching opportunity came in 1977 at Tulsa.

Cooper quickly revived Tulsa's sagging football fortunes. His first team posted a 3-8 record, but a 9-2 season followed and the Golden Hurricane was on the way to a golden era. Six straight winning seasons followed, including a string of five straight Missouri Valley Conference titles between 1980 and 1984.

With a 57-31 record, five conference championships and a 21-game winning streak all working in his favor, Cooper was one of the hottest coaching commodities in the country. Following the 1984 season, he accepted an offer to become head coach at Arizona State.

John Cooper

He quickly proved he was the right man for the job, leading his first ASU squad to an 8-4 record and a berth in the Holiday Bowl. Only a 16-13 loss to arch-rival Arizona on the final day of the season kept ASU out of the Rose Bowl.

In 1986, the Sun Devils were not to be denied. Victories over Washington, UCLA and Southern Cal (both of the latter in Los Angeles) propelled Arizona State to the Pac 10 title and the long-awaited berth in the Rose Bowl, where a decisive win over Michigan put the wraps on a glittering 10-1-1 season.

In what was supposed to have been a rebuilding year, Cooper directed ASU to a third straight bowl appearance in 1987. A victory over Air Force in the Freedom Bowl gave the Sun Devils a 7-4-1 ledger.

Cooper's three-year record of 25-9-2 at ASU once again made him a very desirable property in college coaching circles. When a vacancy occurred at Ohio State following the 1987 season, Cooper, after an extensive nationwide search, was named head coach of the Buckeyes.

One of college football's most respected coaches, Cooper has served as head coach in both the Blue-Gray Game and the Japan Bowl. He currently is first vice president of the College Football Coaches Association and will be president of that organization next year.

Active in the Columbus community, Cooper's affiliations include Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Children's Hospital, Easter Seals, United Way and K-9 Companions.

Cooper and his wife, Helen, have two children, John, Jr. and Cindy, both of whom reside in Columbus.

ELLIOT UZELAC

Assistant Head Coach

Elliot Uzelac is in his first year with the Buckeyes. In addition to serving as assistant head coach, he also coordinates the offense and is responsible for the tackles and tight ends.

Uzelac is no stranger to Big Ten football. He comes to Ohio State from Indiana, where he coached the guards and centers for Bill Mallory last year. His background also includes two tours of duty at Michigan under coach Bo Schembechler.

The 49-year-old Uzelac has 10 years of experience as a head coach on the collegiate level. He was head coach at Western Michigan between 1975 and 1981 and the head man at Navy from 1987 through 1989.

Uzelac is from Gary, Indiana and a 1964 graduate of Western Michigan. He played two years of football for the Broncos before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

Uzelac began his college coaching career in 1965 as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green. In 1966 and '67 he was head coach at Logan High School in Virginia, where his teams compiled a 16-4 record in two seasons.

In 1968, Uzelac returned to Bowling Green, this time as a full-time assistant in charge of the Falcons' offensive line. He remained there until 1970, when he was named offensive line coach at Navy.

Uzelac spent the 1971 and '72 seasons at Michigan. In 1973, he was named head coach at Western Michigan. After a 1-10 record his first year, Uzelac's teams posted a combined record of 37-29 the next six years. He was Mid-American Coach of the Year in 1976, when the Broncos were 7-4.

Uzelac returned to Michigan in 1982 and remained there until 1987, when he was selected as head coach at Navy.

Elliot and his wife, Wendy, have two children, Lisa and Nick.

JOE HOLLIS

Offensive Line

Joe Hollis is in his first season on the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' offensive guards and centers.

While the 43-year-old Hollis is new to Ohio State, he does have a prior association with Buckeye head coach John Cooper. The two spent four years together at the University of Tulsa, Hollis serving as Cooper's offensive line coach between 1980 and 1983.

Prior to Ohio State, Hollis spent six years as the offensive line coach at the University of Georgia. His other coaching stops include Troy State and Auburn as an assistant and Jacksonville State as a head coach. This is his 20th year in coaching.

An Alabama native, Hollis is a 1969 graduate of Auburn. He began his coaching career in 1972 as an assistant at Troy State. He remained there for six years, leaving in 1978 to return to Auburn as offensive line coach.

In 1980, Hollis joined up with Cooper at Tulsa. In 1983, in addition to coaching the offensive line, he also served as offensive coordinator for the Golden Hurricane. During his stay at Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane compiled a 33-11 record, including four league titles and a 20-1 mark in Missouri Valley Conference play.

In 1984, Hollis left Tulsa to become head coach at Jacksonville State. In his only year there, he compiled a 4-5-1 record.

In 1985, Hollis was named offensive line coach at Georgia. During his six seasons with the Bulldogs, Georgia appeared in five bowl games.

Joe and his wife, Carole, have two sons, Joseph and William.

RON HUDSON

Quarterbacks

Ron Hudson is in his fourth year as a member of the Ohio State football staff. This will be his third season working with the Buckeye quarterbacks. During his first year, he coached the running backs.

In addition to tutoring the quarterbacks, Hudson coordinates the OSU passing game. In each of the past two years, Ohio State has thrown for more than 2,000 yards. Last year, the Buckeyes were third in the Big Ten in passing yardage and second in passing efficiency.

Hudson is a native of Lafayette, California. His extensive coaching background includes stops at Illinois, Oregon, UCLA and Notre Dame on the collegiate level, and with the Memphis Showboats on the professional circuit.

Hudson graduated from the University of California in 1969. After three years in the Marine Corps, he began his coaching career in 1972 at Cal. He remained there five years, working at various times with the defensive line, secondary and wide receivers.

In 1977, Hudson took over as quarterback coach at the University of Oregon. He remained there two years before becoming the running backs coach at UCLA in 1979. He was a member of the Bruins' staff for three years, leaving in 1982 to coach the quarterbacks at Notre Dame. He spent four years in South Bend, doubling as offensive coordinator his last two years.

In 1986, Hudson coached the wide receivers and quarterbacks for the Memphis franchise in the USFL. In 1987, he became the running backs' coach at Illinois. Following the '87 season, Hudson came to Ohio State.

Hudson, 45, is single.

GENE HUEY

Running Backs

Gene Huey is in his fourth year on the Ohio State coaching staff. He accompanied John Cooper from Arizona State in the winter of 1988.

During his first three years with the Buckeyes, Huey coached the wide receivers. This year, however, he will work with the OSU running backs.

Huey is an outstanding teacher and communicator, whose players have consistently been one of the strengths of the Ohio State offense. Last year, starters Jeff Graham and Bobby Olive combined for 81 catches and 14 touchdowns and were one of the most dangerous receiving tandems in the Big Ten. Both were selected in the NFL draft.

A native of Uniontown, Pennsylvania, Huey graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1971. He played wide receiver and defensive back for the Cowboys and won all-conference honors at both positions, the only player in the history of the Western Athletic Conference to do so. He was co-captain of the Cowboys as a senior and played on three conference championship teams during his stay in Laramie.

Huey began his coaching career in 1972 as the freshman coach at Wyoming. After two years in that capacity, he moved to the University of New Mexico as wide receivers coach. He left the Lobos in 1977 to accept a similar position with Tom Osborne at Nebraska.

Huey spent 10 years with the Cornhuskers before leaving in 1987 to join forces with Cooper as the wide receivers mentor at Arizona State. He was there just one year before moving to Columbus.

Huey, 44, is single.

JERRY SULLIVAN

Wide Receivers

Jerry Sullivan is in his first season at Ohio State. He coaches the Buckeyes' flankers and split ends.

Sullivan has 20 years of college coaching experience. He spent the past seven years as the wide receivers coach at Louisiana State University, where his list of prized pupils includes two-time All-America Wendell Davis. In addition to Davis, Sullivan also tutored Tony Moss and Eric Martin. They rank as the top three receivers in LSU history.

Sullivan, 46, has coached, too, at Indiana, South Carolina, Texas Tech and Kansas State.

A native of Miami, Florida, Sullivan originally enrolled at Florida State to play football, but transferred after two years and received his bachelor's degree in speech and physical education from Delta State in 1968.

After earning a master's in guidance and secondary education, Sullivan began his coaching career at Cooper High School in Vicksburg, Mississippi in 1970.

In 1971, Sullivan went to Kansas State as a graduate assistant. Promoted to a full-time position in 1972, he remained there just one year before going to Texas Tech in 1973 as coach of the Red Raiders' freshmen and tight ends.

Sullivan left Texas Tech following the 1975 campaign to coach the wide receivers at South Carolina. He spent seven years with the Gamecocks, before accepting a similar position at Indiana under Sam Wyche in 1983.

In 1984, after Wyche moved to the pro ranks, Sullivan accepted the position at LSU.

Jerry has a son, Jon Eric, who is 14.

BILL YOUNG

Defensive Coordinator

Bill Young is in his fourth year as the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator. Young, 45, accompanied John Cooper from Arizona State following the 1987 season.

Under Young's tutelage, the OSU defense has shown steady improvement. Last year, the Buckeyes finished second in the Big Ten in scoring defense and third in total defense.

This is Young's 12th season with Cooper. Prior to Ohio State, they worked together for three years at Arizona State and before that for five years at Tulsa.

Young was born in Hereford, Texas, but grew up in Oklahoma City. He attended Oklahoma State and was a three-year starter for the Cowboys.

After graduating from OSU in 1967, Young embarked upon his coaching career as an assistant high school coach in Oklahoma City. He jumped to the collegiate ranks in 1976, returning to his alma mater as defensive line coach.

Young left Oklahoma State in 1979 to become defensive line coach at Iowa State. He spent one year in that capacity, leaving in 1980 to join up with Cooper at Tulsa.

At Tulsa, Young coached the defensive line the first two years and also served as defensive coordinator in 1983 and '84. During his two years as coordinator, the Golden Hurricane won two conference championships and posted a 10-0 league record.

In 1985, when Cooper moved to Arizona State, Young accompanied him as defensive line coach.

Bill's wife, Lawana, is a special education teacher.

LARRY COYER

Defensive Secondary

Larry Coyer is in his first year on the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' defensive backs.

Coyer came to Ohio State after one year at the University of Houston, where he served as defensive coordinator. His extensive coaching background includes stops in the Pac-10, Big 8 and Big Ten, as well as a stint in the USFL. He also coached previously in Ohio, spending a year at Bowling Green.

Coyer, 48, is a native of Huntington, West Virginia and a 1965 graduate of Marshall, where he was a standout football player and wrestler. After graduation, he spent three years as Marshall's secondary coach, leaving in 1968 to become head coach at Martins Ferry High School in Ohio. Between 1970 and '72, he was the defensive coordinator at Massillon High School, leaving in 1973 to become secondary coach at Bowling Green.

In 1974, Coyer was named defensive coordinator at Iowa. He remained there four years, leaving in 1978 to accept a similar position at Oklahoma State. In 1979, he moved to Iowa State as defensive coordinator.

Coyer left the collegiate ranks in 1983 to become defensive coordinator with the Michigan Panthers of the USFL. He remained there two years before joining the staff of the Memphis Showboats.

In 1986, Coyer returned to college football, accepting the position of defensive coordinator at Memphis State. In 1987, he was named linebacker coach at UCLA, a position he retained until moving to Houston for the 1990 season.

Larry and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Matthew and Justin.

FRED PAGAC

Linebackers

Fred Pagac is the senior assistant on the Ohio State football staff in terms of longevity. He has been with the Buckeyes since 1978 and has served in a full-time capacity since 1982. Up until this year, Pagac has worked exclusively with the outside linebackers. Beginning this year, however, he also will be responsible for the inside backers.

Pagac is a former collegiate and professional standout. He was a three-year starter at tight end at Ohio State during the 1971, '72 and '73 seasons. The latter two teams won Big Ten championships and played in the Rose Bowl. In 1973, when Ohio State narrowly missed out on the national championship, Pagac led the Buckeyes in receiving. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 25, lost 6 and tied 1, including a 19-2-1 mark his last two years.

A native of Richeyville, Pennsylvania, Pagac played five years in the National Football League. In 1974, as a rookie with the Chicago Bears, he received the Brian Piccolo Award, which is presented annually by the Bears to the player who best exemplifies Piccolo's inspirational qualities. Pagac, who also played with Tampa Bay, received his degree from Ohio State in 1975, returning to school during the off-season to complete his course work.

Pagac returned to Ohio State in 1978 as a graduate assistant coach under Woody Hayes. In 1982, he was elevated to full-time status by Earle Bruce, and he was one of three Bruce aides retained by John Cooper following the 1987 season.

Fred and his wife, Bernie, have two children, Jennifer and Freddie.

BOB PALCIC

Defensive Ends and Special Teams

Bob Palcic is starting his sixth year as a member of the Ohio State football staff. His first five years were spent with the offensive line. This year, however, he moves to the other side of the ball, taking over the Buckeyes' defensive ends.

Additionally, Palcic also serves as the Buckeyes' special teams coordinator. Last year, in his first year in that capacity, OSU finished second in punt returns and third in kickoff returns in the Big Ten.

Palcic joined the Ohio State staff in 1986 after three years as the offensive line mentor at the University of Arizona. During his first two years with the Buckeyes, he coached the tackles and tight ends, but switched to guards and centers prior to the 1988 season.

Palcic, 43, is from Gowanda, New York and a 1971 graduate of the University of Dayton. He was a three-year starter at linebacker for the Flyers.

Palcic began his coaching career in 1973 at Ball State. After one year there as a graduate assistant, he returned to his alma mater as full-time coach of the Flyers' defensive ends and linebackers.

In 1976, Palcic went back to Ball State, this time as offensive line coach for the late Dave McClain. In 1978, he accompanied McClain to Wisconsin, where he spent four years as the Badgers' offensive line coach.

In 1982, Palcic became an assistant for the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL. He coached there for two years, leaving in 1984 for the offensive line job at Arizona.

Bob and his wife, Theresa, have three children, Joe, Amy and Monica.

BILL CONLEY

Recruiting Coordinator

Bill Conley, the newest member of John Cooper's staff, is no stranger to Ohio State football. Named in April as the Buckeyes' new recruiting coordinator, Conley played football for the Buckeyes in the early 1970s and was an assistant coach at his alma mater between 1984 and 1987.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Conley spent the past three years as head football coach at nearby Dublin High School. He also has been the head coach at London, Groveport and Middletown high schools, all in Ohio, and has an excellent relationship with the high school coaches throughout the state.

Conley, 40, is a native of Columbus. He enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1968 and made the football team as a walk-on, lettering his last two years as a reserve offensive lineman.

Following graduation in 1972, Conley began his coaching career as an assistant coach at London High School. Elevated to head coach in 1974, he piloted London to a four-year record of 30-8-2.

In 1969, Conley was named head coach at Groveport High School. His three-year record there was 15-14-1 as he rebuilt the Groveport program. In 1982, Conley took over as head coach at Middletown High School. In two seasons with the Middies, his teams went 15-5.

In 1984, Conley left Middletown to become linebacker coach at Ohio State. During his four years with the Buckeyes, he helped develop a number of outstanding players, including two-time All-American Chris Spielman.

Conley returned to the high school ranks in 1988 and led Dublin to a three-year record of 18-12, giving him a career mark of 78-39-3 in 12 seasons. Bill and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Bill and Craig.

DAVE KENNEDY

Strength and Conditioning

Dave Kennedy is in his third season as Ohio State's head strength and conditioning coach. The 30-year-old Kennedy joined the Buckeye staff in June of 1989.

Prior to Ohio State, Kennedy spent seven years as the assistant strength coach at the University of Nebraska. His responsibilities there included developing and monitoring the strength and conditioning program for the Cornhuskers' football team. While he was at Nebraska, the football team was considered one of the strongest in the Big Eight.

At Ohio State, Kennedy works primarily with the football squad, but also oversees the conditioning program for all varsity sports. His year-round conditioning program has greatly increased the overall strength, speed and power of Ohio State's athletes.

Kennedy has designed an individual program for each member of the Ohio State football team. The computerized program focuses on day-to-day improvement and is designed to enhance the mental and physical development of each player.

Kennedy is from Omaha, Nebraska. He is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska, graduating in 1985 with a degree in exercise science.

Dave's wife, Julie, is also a Nebraska graduate.

BILLY HILL

Head Trainer

Billy Hill is in his 17th season as head trainer for the Ohio State football team.

In addition to football, Hill also has extensive international experience. He was head trainer at the 1975 Pan Am Games in Mexico City and the 1983 World Track and Field Championships in Helsinki. He also worked the 1984 Olympics, serving as the head trainer for the United States' track team. Additionally, he has toured the U.S.S.R., Germany and Great Britain as the head trainer for various U.S. track teams.

Hill, 43, is from Memphis, Tennessee. He served three years in the Army, including a tour of duty as a corpsman in Vietnam, before enrolling at Ohio State.

Hill first joined the Ohio State staff in 1971 as an assistant trainer. He graduated from OSU in 1973 and was appointed co-head trainer, with responsibility for football, in 1974.

Hill, one of the most experienced, respected and knowledgeable trainers in his profession, belongs to the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Ohio Trainers Association and the Minority Trainers Association. Locally, he is active in the Merry Makers Club of Columbus.

Billy has four children, daughters Dale, Enshane and Lesley, and a son, Brian, who recently graduated from the Air Force Academy.

Buckeyes Want That Physical Look

For the past three years, it has been the offense that has taken most of the bows. This year, look for a new star.

"I think defense will be the strength of this team," says fourth-year Ohio State football coach John Cooper. "This will be the best defensive unit we have had since I have been here."

Cooper's cast of players includes linebacker Steve Tovar, end Alonzo Spellman and outside linebacker John Kacherski. They are three of the best around at their respective positions. And strong safety Roger Harper, although only a sophomore, is a good bet for stardom in the very near future.

"We have more good players on defense than we have had in the past," appraises Cooper. "You will see a more physical defense this year, one that doesn't have to gamble so much."

Cooper is also looking for a more physical brand of offensive football. "We really stressed that in the spring and will keep stressing it this fall," he says. "We want to be tougher and more aggressive in 1991."

Walk-on middle guard Greg Smith tied for the Big Ten lead in sacks last year.

The Buckeyes must replace seven offensive starters, including three-year regular Greg Frey at quarterback, center Dan Beatty and wide receivers Jeff Graham and Bobby Olive, both of whom were selected in last April's NFL draft.

"We have some big holes to fill on offense, but I feel good about the strides we made in the spring," says Cooper. "We will be okay. The key is to win early and gain a little confidence."

The Buckeyes, 7-4-1 last year and 5-2-1 in the Big Ten, face another tough non-conference schedule before jumping into league play. After opening the season with Arizona on Sept. 7, OSU takes on Louisville and Washington State the next two weeks. The good news is that all three games are at home, part of a seven-game home card that includes Michigan State, back on the Buckeyes' schedule after a two-year absence, and Iowa.

Other highlights include an Oct. 19 game with Northwestern in Cleveland Stadium, the Buckeyes' first visit to the shores of Lake Erie since 1944, and the traditional finale with Michigan, which somehow always seems to decide the Big Ten championship.

Defense — It's What's Up Front That Counts

There are seven holdovers on defense, including all three defensive linemen — Spellman at end, Greg Smith at middle guard and Rich Frimel at tackle. They combined for 28 tackles for losses last year.

At 6-6 and 285, Spellman is something special. This will be his third year as a starter but just his second as a down lineman. Now that he has a year of experience at end, he may well be in a league by himself.

Smith is the Horatio Alger of the defense. He walked on two years ago and has since been converted to scholarship. Last year, in his first year as a starter, he tied for the Big Ten lead in sacks with seven.

Frimel is the most experienced of the defensive linemen. This will be his third year as a starter. He was fourth on the team in tackles last year with 65. He's a tough, hard-nosed competitor — the blue collar type who is right at home in the trenches.

Additionally, Derrick Foster at end, Sean Carden at nose and Dave Monnot at tackle are all capable backups.

"I really like our experience and depth on the defensive line," says Cooper. "We haven't had that before."

The inside linebacking corps is led by Tovar, a first team all-Big Ten pick last year and a legitimate candidate for the Butkus Award this year. The 6-4, 240-pound junior led the Buckeyes in tackles last season with 125 and is the latest in a long line of outstanding Ohio State linebackers.

Tom Lease is expected to line up next to Tovar. He moved inside for the first time last year and responded with 53 tackles. Judah Herman, a starter two years ago and a good football player, will spell Lease and could press him for a starting spot.

Redshirt frosh Alex Rodriguez will provide quality depth. He moved over from fullback last fall and was very impressive in the spring.

There is also quality and quantity at outside linebacker, where Kacherski and Jason Simmons will play the rush side and Mark Williams and Preston Harrison the drop side.

Kacherski has missed all but one game the past two years with knee injuries, but is a big, talented, fast athlete who strikes fear in the hearts of opposing quarterbacks when he is bearing down on them.

Simmons gained valuable experience last year after Kacherski was hurt (in the first half of the opener with Texas Tech) and has developed into a fine player in his own right. He had 56 tackles, including 12 for losses, last year.

Williams will start on the other side. He was the Buckeyes' No. 3 outside linebacker last year and played in 11 games. Harrison, converted from quarterback in the spring, is one of the top athletes on the squad and will press Williams for playing time. So will senior Andy Gurd, who was shifted from inside to outside in the spring, a move designed to create less wear and tear on a tender shoulder that has sidelined him much of the past three years.

In the secondary, juniors Foster Paulk and Bryan Cook will start at cornerbacks and sophomores Roger Harper and Chico Nelson at the safeties.

Paulk is the only one of the four with any appreciable experience. He has played in all 24 games the past two years and has nine career starts. Cook has started five games at safety, but moves to the boundary corner this year. Harper and Nelson have played in 23 games between them, either in a reserve role or as a member of the special teams.

But all four are talented athletes, and Harper (6-4, 224), Cook (6-3, 190) and Nelson (6-1, 190) can knock you through the front windshield if you aren't strapped in.

Tim Walton also is back. He started three games last year at corner and was second on the team in interceptions with three. But the 6-foot sophomore sat out spring drills with a pulled hamstring and, as yet, hasn't had a chance to show new secondary coach Larry Coyer what he can do.

Tim Patillo and Brent Johnson, a converted linebacker, will provide support, as will six incoming freshmen, recruited as defensive backs.

Last year's defense was the best yet in Cooper's three seasons at Ohio State, allowing an average of 312 yards and 18 points a game and finishing no worse than fourth in any of the Big Ten's defensive categories. This year's could be better.

The Offense — Who's No. 1?

The most frequently asked question last spring was "Who will take over for Greg Frey at quarterback?" When the Buckeyes reconvene in mid August, that will still be the No. 1 question.

"The job is still wide open," insists Cooper. "All three candidates did some things right in the spring, but no one really stepped forward and took control. We will make the decision in the fall. But based upon what I saw in the spring, I believe we can win with any of the three."

Senior Kent Graham, junior Kirk Herbstreit and freshman Joe Pickens are the contenders. Each brings a little something different to the OSU attack.

Graham is the most experienced. The 6-5 transfer from Notre Dame played a total of 45 minutes in six games last year, completing 15 of 26 passes for 195 yards and three touchdowns. He is the classic drop-back passer and has a howitzer for a right arm.

Herbstreit is a superb athlete who grew up on the option. He would rather run than throw, but has improved greatly as a passer. With his scrambling ability, he can turn a potential lost-yardage play into a big gainer.

Senior Kent Graham is the Buckeyes' most experienced quarterback.

Pickens is still learning the system, but has enormous potential. He can both run and throw and is extremely intelligent. And after leading his high school team to back-to-back state championships, he knows how to win.

Whoever stands in over center will have some talented receivers to throw to. Flanker Bernard Edwards and split end Brian Stablein were solid reserves last year and should be effective as starters. Stablein, in particular, has great hands.

Additionally, quick and clever Dante Lee has moved over from running back and should give the receiving corps a real boost once he gets a feel for his new position.

The coaching staff has high hopes, too, for redshirt freshman Joey Galloway at split end, as well as sophomore Jesse Prewitt and junior Allen DeGraffenreid at flanker. And Greg Beatty, who started seven games two years ago but missed all of last year with a knee injury, is expected back in the fall.

Jeff Ellis and Cedric Saunders will get the lion's share of playing time at tight end. Ellis is a 6-4, 245-pound senior with All-America potential. He caught 40 passes in 1988, but just 14 the past two years due to injuries. Saunders was pressed into duty last year as a freshman and showed signs of promise. He is coming off a good spring and will be a very capable backup for Ellis.

Depth is a problem, however, meaning either Joe Metzger or Travis Lutz, who combined for 53 minutes last year, will have to come through.

But there is no lack of depth at tailback, where the Buckeyes are loaded with talented runners. One of those is sophomore Robert Smith, who lived up to his preseason expectations in 1990 by rushing for an OSU freshman record 1,126 yards. The 6-2, 195-pound speedster was a unanimous choice as Big Ten Freshman of the Year and was chosen by U.P.I. as National Freshman of the Year.

Besides the versatile Smith, who also returns punts and kickoffs and even blocked a field goal attempt in the Spring Game, OSU's ground troops include sophomore Butler By'not'e and senior Carlos Snow. By'not'e, who backed up Smith last year (239 yards), is coming off a great spring, as is the 5-9, 200-pound Snow, who rushed for 990 yards two years ago but sat out last year after undergoing hip surgery. It's anyone's guess who will start. Figure on all three playing a lot of football.

At fullback, Scottie Graham returns for his senior year. Graham rushed for 977 yards and 10 touchdowns two years ago, but sprained his ankle in the season opener last year and wound up with just 253 yards and two TDs on 73 carries. The 5-10, 220-pounder is determined to have a better year in 1991.

Raymont Harris, perhaps the Buckeyes' most versatile back will back up Graham. Harris played both tailback and fullback last year and was OSU's second leading rusher with 519 yards. He also tied Smith for the most rushing touchdowns with eight. But he will stay at fullback this year. Like Graham, he has the speed to break away.

And if it is brute strength that the Buckeyes are looking for down close to the goal line, William Houston (6-1 and 240) and Tyrone Harrison (6-2, 232) are two physical ball carriers who can also block.

There's also plenty of beef up front. Left tackle Alan Kline is 6-7 and 285, while right tackle Mick Shoaf is 6-5 and 280. Both started last year and Kline, only a sophomore, could well be the Buckeyes next All-American lineman. Jason Winrow (6-6, 290) and Mike Dully (6-4 and 280) are the backups.

Len Hartman (6-2, 280) and Rod Smith (6-3, 285) will be the guards. Hartman started nine games a year ago. He's tough, durable and competitive. Smith, who played a total of 94 minutes in eight games, is a very highly thought of sophomore, who lost 40 pounds at the end of last season and appears ready to make a name for himself. For depth, Mike Huddleston returns, and redshirt freshman Mark Bean has moved over from the defensive line.

If Paul Long (6-5, 250), who outdueled Jack Thrush in the spring, can successfully replace Dan Beatty at center, the OSU line should be improved over a year ago when Beatty was the lone returning starter.

The Buckeyes averaged 29 points and 377 yards a game in 1990. They did so with almost perfect balance, throwing for 2,317 yards and 20 touchdowns and rushing for 2,212 yards and 22 TDs. Look for OSU to rely a little more on the running game this year, especially while Frey's successor is getting his feet wet.

Kicking — A One Man Show

The kicking game appears to rest with the capable foot of sophomore Tim Williams. Williams led Ohio State in scoring last year with 79 points, hitting 13 of 18 field goals and all 40 PATs. In addition to his placekicking duties, Williams will apparently succeed Jeff Bohlman as the Buckeyes' punter. Jon Berger is the only other Buckeye kicker with any game experience. He appeared in four games last season.

Summary

Ohio State returns 44 total lettermen, including 40 from last year. Broken down, the Buckeyes have 26 letter winners back on offense, including Carlos Snow and Greg Beatty from the 1989 season. There are 18 lettermen returning on defense and that total includes Andy Gurd (1988) and John Kacherski (1989).

Defensively, the Buckeyes appear to have their best team in the past four years, although the secondary does lack depth. Offensively, once the quarterback question is settled, OSU has a talented assortment of skilled athletes capable of finding the end zone.

The kicking game and special teams are solid. Look for this year's freshman class to provide the most help in the secondary. Frosh punter Mike Crissy might also have an impact.

Injuries to key players have really hurt Ohio State the past few years. If the Buckeyes can stay healthy and gather some momentum early, they will again be in the hunt for the Big Ten title, a crown that has eluded them on the last day of the season in each of the past two years.

Some Ohio State numbers that have become famous over the years:

1 — Worn by Tom Skladany, Ohio State's last three-time All-American and an inductee into this year's OSU Hall of Fame.

2 — Worn by Cris Carter, the only Ohio State wide receiver ever to win All-America honors.

10 — Worn by Rex Kern, who led the Buckeyes to the 1968 national championship.

22 — Worn by Les Horvath, Ohio State's first Heisman Trophy recipient (1944).

31 — Worn by Vic Janowicz, 1950 Heisman Trophy winner as a junior.

36 — Worn by All-America linebackers Tom Cousineau, Marcus Marek and Chris Spielman.

40 — Worn by Howard Cassady, two-time All-American and 1955 Heisman winner.

42 — Worn by running back Paul Warfield and All-American fullback John Brockington.

45 — Worn by Archie Griffin, college football's only two-time Heisman winner, and by the late Bo Rein.

Many of the facts in the players bios are taken from questionnaires sent to them after they sign with Ohio State. Below is the questionnaire of former Ohio State star Paul Warfield.

Offensive Guard
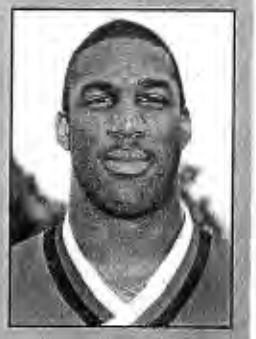
Wooster, O. (Wooster)
Born 12-30-68
Major - Sociology

NOTES — Valuable reserve who can back up either side ... began last year at quick guard, but wound up the season as the No. 2 quick tackle behind Alan Kline ... has also played center for the Buckeyes and could conceivably see action at any of the interior spots this year ... 1989 — Played in five games, logging a total of 22 minutes behind Karl Coles ... 1988 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Won Ohio Lineman of the Year honors as a senior ... was set to enroll at OSU in the fall of 1987, but injured his knee in the state high school playoffs and did not enroll until winter quarter 1988 ... also lettered in wrestling and track in high school ... hobbies include playing golf.

BRENT JOHNSON — 30

6-1, 218, Jr.
Defensive Back
Columbus, O. (Bexley)
Born 6-24-69
Major - Sociology



NOTES — Will play the secondary for the first time this year ... moved from inside linebacker to the boundary corner last spring in order to shore up the Buckeyes' secondary depth ... will back up Bryan Cook and be used in nickel situations ... good athlete who had problems maintaining his weight at linebacker and should be more comfortable as a corner ... played a total of 103 minutes in 11 games last year, missing only the Indiana game ... finished the season with 33 tackles ... five tackles and an interception against Purdue was his top game ... a good special teams player ... 1989 — Played in eight games and had 11 tackles ... picked off his first career interception against Oklahoma State ... 1988 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Ohio's Division III Back of the Year as a senior, when he ran for nearly 2,000 yards and scored 23 touchdowns ... hobbies are listening to music and playing basketball.

JOHN KACHERSKI — 95

6-3, 240, Sr.
Outside Linebacker
Riverhead, N.Y.
(Milford Academy)
Born 6-27-67
Major - Communications

NOTES — Has played in just one game the past two years due to two separate injuries to his right knee, but is nonetheless being counted on this year to be one of the leaders of the Ohio State defense ... great athlete with tremendous quickness ... has a flair for making big plays ... started the first game last year and had four tackles, including two sacks, before being hurt in the first half and undergoing surgery the following week that kept him out of action the rest of the year ... went through spring drills, minus heavy contact, and seemed to be fine physically ... if he is any semblance of his old self, it will be a tremendous boost to the OSU defense ... 1989 — Missed the entire year as the result of a knee injury in spring practice ... 1988 — Started just four games, but led the Big Ten in sacks with nine ... finished with 36 tackles, 10 for losses ... 1987 — Played in seven games as a backup middle guard and defensive tackle ... OTHER — Has worked very hard the past year to rehabilitate his knee ... had an impressive 47 sacks his last two years in high school.

ALAN KLINE — 67

6-7, 280, So.
Offensive Tackle
Tiffin, O. (Columbian)
Born 5-25-71
Major - Business

NOTES — Will start at left tackle ... big, strong, talented player with the potential to someday be one of the top linemen in college football ... played in 11 games last year and was second in playing time among the freshmen with 208 minutes ... started five games in 1990, including the last three ... has added 20 pounds and can effectively carry more ... great work habits and very intelligent ... has had stretches where he simply dominates ... will only get better with experience ... 1989 — Redshirted ... OTHER — A National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar in high school ... on the football field, led his team to a three-year mark of 26-6, including an 11-1 mark his junior year ... hobbies are fishing, hiking and camping and playing the guitar ... wants to get into sports management as a career, but has a lot of football left to play.

TOM LEASE — 81

6-5, 240, Jr.
Linebacker
Kenton, O. (Kenton)
Born 8-13-69
Major - Hospitality Management

NOTES — Steady performer who has started the past two years ... he and Judah Herman waged a nip-and-tuck battle in the spring for the starting spot opposite Steve Tovar on the inside and that battle will likely continue right up until the first game in the fall ... finished the 1990 campaign with 53 tackles, seventh on the team ... started every game and logged 199 minutes of playing time ... top game was seven tackles at Iowa ... both of his tackles for losses came against Minnesota ... very intelligent player ... began his career at OSU as an outside linebacker, but was moved to the inside last year to take advantage of his size and mobility ... 1989 — Started 11 times at outside linebacker and finished the year with 33 tackles, including 24 solos ... also had six tackles for losses ... 1988 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Originally set to enroll in the fall of 1987, but delayed his enrollment until the following winter because of a shoulder injury ... the Ohio Class AA Lineman of the Year as a high school senior ... likes to draw.

DANTE LEE — 5

5-10, 185, Jr.
Running Back/Flanker
Dayton, O. (Meadowdale)
Born 10-15-70
Major - Recreation Education

NOTES — A top reserve and part-time starter at tailback the past two years ... will divide his time between running back and flanker this fall ... a talented athlete who should really help the Buckeyes' receiving corps once he familiarizes himself with his new position ... darting, elusive runner who will be very difficult to cover one-on-one ... one of the quickest players on the team ... carried the ball just 14 times last year and had 53 yards and one TD ... had one catch for nine yards in 1990 ... second on the team in kickoff returns with 344 yards on 18 runbacks ... 1989 — Enjoyed a very productive freshman campaign, rushing for 503 yards and six touchdowns ... played in all 12 games and started the Michigan game ... had three games with 90 or more yards and ran for 157 yards and three touchdowns at Northwestern ... OTHER — Nickname is "Quick" ... rushed for 23 touchdowns and 1,228 yards as a high school senior ... hobby is drawing, especially cartoons, and dancing.

PAUL LONG — 66

6-5, 270, Jr.
Center
Highland Heights, O. (Mayfield)
Born 4-9-69
Major - Journalism

NOTES — Appears to be the leading candidate to replace Dan Beatty at center even though the sum total of his playing time at that position is seven minutes in four games, all last year ... won the starting job, despite his inexperience, with an impressive spring showing in which he showed daily improvement ... has good strength and size and is an extremely hard worker ... came to Ohio State as a defensive lineman and played there his first two years ... moved to center for the first time in the spring of 1990, so he is still learning the position ... 1989 — Played in six games and had two tackles ... 1988 — Enrolled in the spring and redshirted in the fall ... OTHER — Wants to be a magazine feature writer ... hobbies include collecting records and reading fiction ... won the state heavyweight wrestling crown as a senior.

JOE METZGER — 97

6-2, 235, Jr.
Tight End
Centerville, O. (Alter)
Born 6-24-69
Major - Business

NOTES — Reserve tight end who is in just his second year at the position ... played a total of 31 minutes in nine games last year, mostly with the special teams ... had no receptions ... could see more playing time this year because of a lack of depth at tight end ... does have good speed (holds his high school record for the 100) and is a good athlete ... 1989 — Played in 8 games as a reserve outside linebacker and a member of the special teams ... had three tackles ... 1988 — Redshirted ... OTHER — All-Southwest Ohio as a senior ... 218 career tackles and 28 lifetime receptions ... a regional qualifier in the 200-meter dash as a high school senior and still holds the school record in that event.

DAVE MONNOT — 77

6-5, 265, So.
Defensive Tackle
Canton, O. (Central Catholic)
Born 7-6-71
Major - Journalism

NOTES — Will be in his second year as a backup for Rich Frimel ... played a total of 90 minutes in 12 games last year ... finished with 18 tackles and had a sack and two tackles for loss against Northwestern ... intelligent player who is especially good against the run ... solid reserve with a bright future ... 1989 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Division IV Lineman of the Year as a high school senior ... first team all-Ohio in both wire service polls and an honorable mention pick on USA TODAY'S All-America team ... likes to read and collect comic books ... hopes his journalism training will someday lead to a career as an editorial writer.

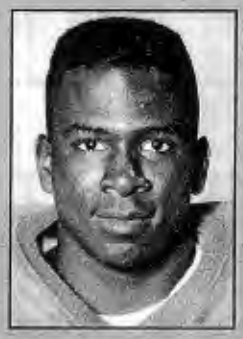
CHICO NELSON — 13

6-1, 190, So.
Safety
Sarasota, Fla. (Sarasota)
Born 12-25-69
Major - Black Studies

NOTES — Emerged from spring ball with a slight edge over Tim Patillo in the battle for the starting free safety spot ... big-time hitter with speed and good instincts ... coaches like his leadership ability ... played strong safety last year but shifted to free safety in the spring ... had 24 tackles in 1990, including a season-high 6 against Purdue ... had his only interception against Minnesota ... also an outstanding special teams player ... 1989 — Redshirted after undergoing knee surgery on Nov. 14 ... OTHER — First name is Willie ... missed the first seven games of his senior year in high school with a knee injury, but had 49 tackles and two interceptions in the five games he did play in, and those numbers were good enough to earn him first-team all-state honors ... relaxes by walking through malls.

TIM PATILLO — 21

5-11, 170, Fr.
Defensive Back
Aliquippa, Pa.
(Aliquippa)
Born 5-24-72
Major - Business



NOTES — Enters fall camp as the No. 3 safety and can play either strong or free safety ... coaches would like him to concentrate on just one of the two (preferably strong), but he will have to do double duty until a suitable backup is found at free safety ... good savvy and speed and hits a ton for his size ... needs to be able to focus on just one position ... will be used as a nickel back ... redshirted last year ... OTHER — a three-year starter in high school ... helped Aliquippa win the league championship by intercepting two passes in the endzone, both thefts coming in the last two minutes of the game.

FOSTER PAULK — 22

5-11, 190, Jr.
Defensive Back
Sarasota, Fla.
(Riverview)
Born 11-22-70
Major - Communications

NOTES — Will be the starter at the open-side corner ... the Buckeyes' fastest defensive player and a very adept one-on-one defender ... started six games last year, including the final three, and has nine career starts ... totals last season included 35 tackles and three passes broken up in the 12 games he played in ... blocked punts against Illinois and Iowa, the latter setting up a key touchdown in the Buckeyes' thrilling come-from-behind win over the Hawkeyes (27-26) ... seven tackles against Illinois was his season high ... 1989 — Had three starts when regular David Brown was injured ... finished the year with 28 tackles in 12 games ... lone career interception came against Illinois ... OTHER — Clocked at 10.6 in the 100-meters in high school ... 12 interceptions his last two years in high school, including three that he returned for TDs ... hobbies include building model trucks.

AARON PAYNE — 19

5-8, 165, So.
Split End
Louisville, Kent.
(Holy Cross)
Born 5-16-71
Major - Communications

NOTES — The Buckeyes' fastest player, but lacks experience ... played in four games last year and had one catch, an 18-yard reception at Purdue ... blazing straight-ahead speed ... could see action this year on the kickoff return unit ... has won six Big Ten track titles since coming to Ohio State ... 1989 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Won state titles in the 100, 200 and 400 meters and holds the state record in all three ... has been timed at 10.3 in the 100-meters ... ran for 1,300 yards and 19 touchdowns as a senior in high school ... MVP of the Ohio State track team as a freshman and the Big Ten's Freshman of the Year in track ... MVP at the Big Ten Track Meet last spring ... enjoys riding his bike.

JOE PICKENS — 12

6-3, 220, Fr.
Quarterback
Brooklyn, O.
(St. Ignatius)
Born 2-11-72
Major - Undecided

NOTES — Excellent young quarterback prospect who was redshirted last year ... classic drop-back passer, but is agile enough to roll out when the situation warrants it ... has great touch and good instincts, but needs game experience ... hard worker and quick learner ... had a good spring and conceivably could challenge Graham and Herbstreit for playing time this season, maybe even for the starting spot ... has a very bright future ... OTHER — Led his high school to a 27-0 mark and two state titles his last two years ... threw for 2,240 yards and 21 touchdowns as a senior ... career passing totals were 5,140 yards and 40 TD passes ... recruited by everyone ... also a standout pitcher, he was 7-1 with a 0.90 ERA as a junior ... hobbies include all sports.

JESSE PREWITT — 47

5-11, 182, So.
Flanker
Dayton, O.
(Meadowdale)
Born 11-10-69
Major - Criminology

NOTES — One of the Buckeyes' fastest receivers, but lacks experience ... the leading receiver in the spring game with four catches for 44 yards ... walk-on who made the team last year, but was ineligible to play ... hard working player with a bright future ... should also be a valuable member of the special teams ... OTHER — He and OSU running back Dante Lee, who will spend time at wide receiver this year, were teammates at Meadowdale ... Jamie Skelton, a sophomore guard on the Ohio State basketball team, also started in the backfield for Meadowdale ... won three letters in football and track and one in basketball ... set a single-game Meadowdale record with 11 receptions for 181 yards.

ALEX RODRIGUEZ — 48

6-1, 224, Fr.
Linebacker
Chicago, Ill. (Lane Tech)
Born 1-18-72
Major - Undecided

NOTES — Established himself in the spring as a solid No. 2 linebacker behind Steve Tovar ... came to Ohio State as a fullback and shifted to linebacker midway through last season ... has progressed much more quickly than anyone anticipated and was one of the most pleasant surprises of the spring ... physical player who is especially good against the run ... adept at fighting off would-be blockers because his low center of gravity allows him to get under opposing players' pads ... redshirted last year ... OTHER — Chicago Sun Times Player of the Year as a senior ... rushed for 2,009 yards and 25 TDs as a senior ... also fashioned a 12-2 record and a 1.02 ERA as a junior pitcher at Lane Tech ... nickname is "A-Train" ... hobbies are playing racquetball and camping.

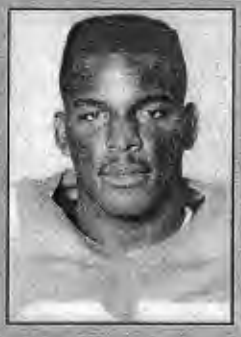
CHRIS ROY — 80

6-3, 245, So.
Tight End
Westerville, O. (DeSales)
Born 1-18-70
Major - Business

NOTES — Came to Ohio State as one of the top tight ends/outside linebackers in the Midwest, but has not played competitively for three years now because of two separate knee injuries and four operations ... was originally set to enroll in the fall of 1988, but injured his right knee in the summer when the motorcycle he was sitting on fell over on him ... enrolled in the spring of 1989, but injured his left knee in a preseason scrimmage and underwent surgery, sitting out the entire year ... then had two more operations on his left knee, causing him to miss the 1990 season ... did practice last spring, but was held out of any heavy contact ... will be full-go in the fall ... OTHER — Named to the Associated Press all-Ohio team as a defensive end and to the U.P.I. first-team squad as a tight end ... DeSales was 33-2 during his three years as a starter and won the state title his sophomore year.

CEDRIC SAUNDERS — 85

6-3, 238, So.
Tight End
Sarasota, Fla. (Sarasota)
Born 9-30-72
Major - Communications



NOTES — Talented young player who will be the No. 2 tight end and could challenge for a starting position if he shows as much improvement in the fall as he did last spring ... good receiver with the ability to get down field ... might line up as a wideout in certain situations ... needs to add weight and become a more consisent blocker, but will work hard to accomplish both of those goals ... played a total of 32 minutes in 11 games last year ... caught two passes for 39 yards ... first catch was a 15 yarder at Purdue and the second covered 24 yards against Minnesota ... OTHER — First team All-Florida as a senior, when he caught 35 passes for 800 yards and 10 touchdowns ... helped lead Sarasota to a 19-4 mark his last two years ... holds the school record for receptions in a game (11 as a senior) ... hobbies are going to "action" movies and video games ... wants to go into sports broadcasting.

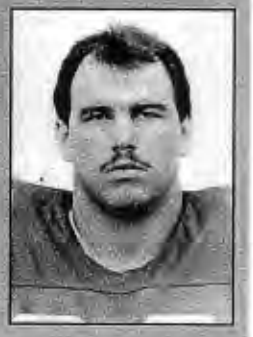
CHRIS SANDERS — 17

6-1, 165, So.
Wide Receiver
Denver, Colo. (Montbello)
Born 5-8-72
Major - Undecided

NOTES — Ineligible last year ... talented athlete who was very highly regarded coming out of high school, both as a receiver and as a defensive back ... has not been able to practice, so he is still an unknown quantity who will have to prove himself in the fall ... thought to be a Bobby Olive-type of receiver who is very quick and elusive and able to make defenders miss him ... OTHER — First team all-state as a senior, catching 30 passes for 750 yards and 11 touchdowns ... also had 11 interceptions as a senior ... helped lead his high school to consecutive runner-up finishes in the state playoffs ... won state track crowns in the 100, 200 and long jump as a senior ... hobbies include reading and fishing.

JOHN SCHILLING — 69

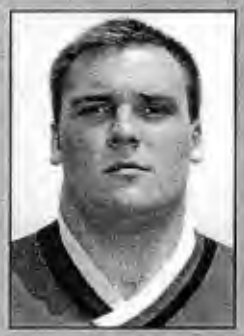
6-3, 285, Jr.
Offensive Tackle
Clinton, O. (Massillon)
Born 1-14-70
Major - Marketing



NOTES — Reserve tackle who will add depth on the right side behind Mick Shoaf ... hopes to lock up a spot in the two-deep this year and earn his first letter with the Buckeyes ... has not seen any game action the past two years, but continues to work hard in practice in an effort to impress the coaching staff ... 1989 — A backup at quick tackle but did not see any game action ... 1988 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Hobbies are hunting, fishing and lifting weights ... a two-year starter at Massillon, annually one of the top high school programs in the state ... wants to go into sales after graduation.

PAUL SHERRICK — 73

6-8, 300, Jr.
Offensive Tackle
Middletown, O. (Middletown)
Born 11-2-69
Major - Advertising



NOTES — Trying to overcome a series of back problems that have sidelined him for the better part of the past two seasons ... played in just one game in 1989 and did not see any action last year ... had disk surgery in December of '89 and had follow-up surgery last year ... did practice last spring and now appears to be fully recovered ... big, strong lineman who can simply overpower defensive linemen ... if he can stay healthy, he will be a valuable addition to the offensive line mix ... 1989 — Lone appearance was a three-minute stint against Oklahoma State ... 1988 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Hobbies are camping and drawing ... wants to work for an advertising firm after graduation ... a consensus all-Ohio choice as a senior and also named to several All-American teams.

MICK SHOAF — 78

6-5, 280, Sr.
Offensive Tackle
Orwell, O. (Grand Valley)
Born 3-10-69
Major - Education

NOTES — Will start on the right side ... the Buckeyes' most experienced returning lineman, playing a total of 259 minutes and starting all 12 games at strong tackle last year ... was surprisingly consistent last year in his first season as a starter ... strong, hard working player, who wants to excel ... bench presses 420 pounds, squats 577 and has great lower body strength ... should be one of the leaders up front in 1990 ... intelligent player ... 1989 — Played a total of 45 minutes as a backup to Tim Moxley ... 1988 — Did not play due to injuries ... 1987 — Redshirted ... OTHER — Graduated last spring and currently in grad school ... wants to teach and become a school administrator after his football career is over ... two-time All-Ohio choice ... named his conference's MVP as a senior, an unusual honor for an offensive lineman ... won the state discus title as a senior ... first name is Mike ... hobbies include playing golf and weight lifting.

JASON SIMMONS — 91

6-5, 240, So.
Outside Linebacker
Akron, O. (St. Vincent-St. Mary)
Born 12-20-70
Major - Criminology

NOTES — Took over for John Kacherski last year and started the last 11 games ... logged an ironman-like 273 minutes of playing time, the fifth highest total on the team ... finished the year with 56 total tackles, sixth best on the OSU defense ... also had 12 tackles for losses and five quarterback sacks to rank second on the team in those two key statistical categories ... top game was at Iowa, where his eight tackles included three for losses and two sacks, a performance that earned him Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week laurels ... has improved steadily since coming to Ohio State and has the potential to be an outstanding player ... 1989 — Redshirted in the fall, but caught the coaching staff's attention in the spring ... OTHER — Selected by the coaching staff as Ohio State's top first year defensive performer last year ... helped lead his high school to a 12-1 record and a state title as a senior ... lists his hobbies as hunting, fishing and reading ... career objective is to work for the FBI.

Game Capsule

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Flanker Jeff Graham returned a fourth quarter punt 50 yards for a touchdown to lead Ohio State to a 17-10 come-from-behind victory over Texas Tech. The Buckeyes, who won their 12th straight home opener, trailed 3-0 at halftime before freshman tailback Robert Smith put some spark into the offense in the second half. He accounted for 188 all-purpose yards and tied the score at 10-all with a two-yard TD run late in the third period. Inside linebacker Steve Tovar had 13 tackles as Ohio State held Tech to 61 yards rushing. Smith and Tovar earned Big Ten Player of the Week honors.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Ohio State held its first two opponents to a combined 126 yards rushing, but Southern Cal racked up 331 yards on the ground, including a career-high 199 by tailback Ricky Ervins, to hand OSU a 35-26 defeat. An eight-yard blocked punt return for a touchdown midway through the first quarter set the tone for the day as Southern Cal jumped out to a 14-0 lead and was up by as many as 18. Quarterback Greg Frey threw for 262 yards and flanker Jeff Graham caught five passes for 109 yards and a touchdown. The teams combined for nearly 800 total yards. The contest was called by officials with 2:36 remaining due to heavy thunderstorms.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Buckeyes amassed 487 total yards against what was regarded as the Big Ten's top defense, but it still wasn't enough as Illinois won the Big Ten opener, 31-20. Ohio State led 17-10 at halftime and 20-17 midway through the third period. After Illinois took the lead late in the third period, it wrapped up the game early in the fourth on a controversial 45-yard blocked field goal return for a touchdown. Quarterback Greg Frey passed for 244 yards and tailback Raymont Harris rushed for 118, but the Buckeyes had six turnovers. Illini quarterback Jason Verduzco passed for 258 yards and a pair of TDs, with split end Shawn Wax making eight receptions for 159 yards.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Ohio State saw a 27-17 lead entering the fourth quarter disappear when Indiana rallied for 10 points and the game ended tied at 27. The Buckeyes trailed 17-14 at halftime, but a 65-yard scoring pass from quarterback Greg Frey to flanker Jeff Graham early in the third period put OSU ahead. Ohio State had a chance to put the game away later in the quarter when it twice drove to within the Indiana 15-yard line. But both times it had to settle for field goals. The Buckeyes ran just nine plays and gained 13 yards in the fourth quarter. Indiana's Vaughn Dunbar rushed for 188 yards and two TDs and flanker Rob Turner caught four passes for 134 yards and a score.

Game Capsule

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — The Buckeyes used the big play on offense and a fine defensive effort to carry them to a 42-2 victory over Purdue. Tailback Robert Smith scored on a 69-yard run on OSU's first possession to make it 7-0. Following a Purdue safety and tight end Rich Huffman's two-yard TD reception, quarterback Greg Frey and flanker Jeff Graham went to work. Frey made a 60-yard touchdown reception on Graham's end-around pass, then Graham caught scoring strikes of 58 and 48 yards to make it 35-2 with a quarter-and-a-half left. The offense generated 475 total yards, while the defense held Purdue to four yards rushing and made five interceptions, two by cornerback Vinnie Clark.

IOWA CITY, Iowa — The Buckeyes overcame a 26-14 deficit with 11 minutes to play and won at sixth-ranked Iowa, 27-26, when quarterback Greg Frey hit split end Bobby Olive on a three-yard touchdown pass with one second remaining. That pair also teamed up on a 21-yard scoring play with 6:34 left to cut the lead to 26-21. It was OSU's fourth straight win, moved the team into sole possession of second place in the Big Ten and gave Head Coach John Cooper his 100th career victory. In all, Frey passed for three touchdowns and ran for another. Linebacker Steve Tovar had a career-high 14 tackles and outside linebacker Jason Simmons added eight, including three for losses. Olive and Simmons earned Big Ten player of the week honors.

Game Capsule

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Michigan's J.D. Carlson kicked a 37-yard field goal as time expired to give the Wolverines a 16-13 victory over Ohio State. Four plays earlier with 1:38 to play, the Buckeyes failed to convert on a fourth-and-1 at their own 29-yard line. Ohio State could not hold onto leads of 10-6 at halftime and 13-6 early in the third. OSU outgained Michigan 284 total yards to 248, but threw three interceptions and had eight penalties. An Ohio State victory would have sent the team to the Rose Bowl, but the Buckeyes settled for a Liberty Bowl berth while Michigan headed to the Gator Bowl.

A leader in higher education, The Ohio State University offers a dynamic environment for people seeking opportunity, academic enrichment, diversity and challenge.

Ohio State offers a worldwide classroom and attracts support for worldclass research.

The Columbus campus—with a combined student, faculty and staff population of about 68,000 — is the largest in the nation.

More than 97 percent of the regular faculty hold doctoral or professional degrees, and more than 13,000 of the University's 60,000 students are enrolled in graduate and professional programs.

Ohio State's faculty includes a Nobel Prize winner, members of the National Academy of Sciences, Guggenheim and Fulbright Fellows, Rhodes Scholars, and editors of prestigious journals.

The student body includes more than 3,000 honors students, several hundred National Merit and National Achievement Scholars, and recipients of many other awards for scholarship, leadership and talent.

Ohio State's selective admissions policy is strengthening the overall academic quality of the undergraduate student body.

Faculty and students also work and study at regional campuses in Lima, Mansfield, Marion and Newark and at the Agricultural Technical Institute in Wooster. Specialized areas for research and study include the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster with branches in a dozen counties, the Barnebey Center for Environmental Studies in Fairfield County, and Stone Laboratory on Lake Erie's Gilbraltar Island.

Founded as the Ohio Agricultural and Mechanical College in 1870, the University has 19 colleges and a graduate school.

Students may choose from more than 11,000 courses and select from more than 200 undergraduate majors. A newly revised curriculum features courses in writing, data analysis, social diversity, and contemporary issues of broad and worldwide significance.

Ohio State also offers more than 100 master's and nearly 100 doctoral degree programs.

The many specialized programs include theater, polar studies, medieval and renaissance studies, human resources, women's studies, computer-aided design and Black studies.

Students can enrich their education by using the 17th largest research library in North America; by experiencing film, the fine arts and music; and by participating in some of the more than 500 student organizations and about 120 club, intramural and intercollegiate sports programs.

At quarterly commencement exercises, college deans personally hand each graduate his or her diploma. Ohio State awards more than 10,000 degrees annually. More than 400,000 have been awarded since the first commencement in 1878.

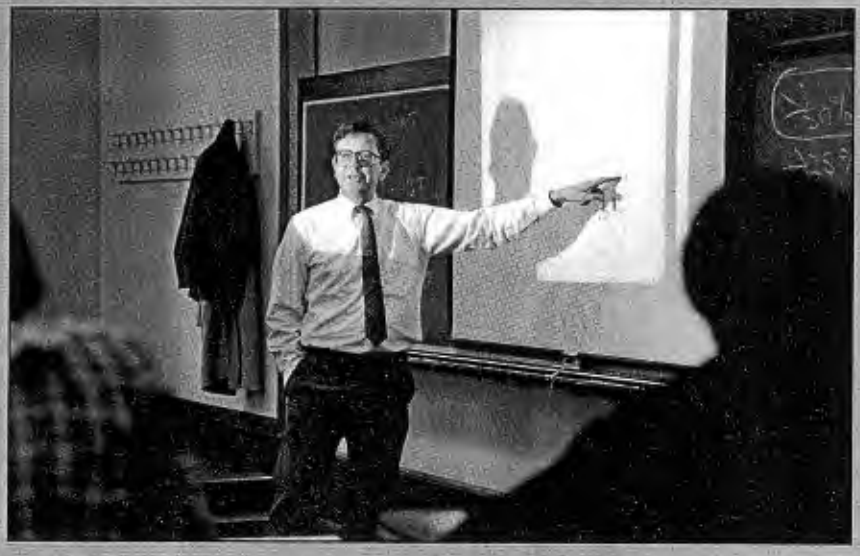
Ohio State has increased its externally funded research support to more than $145 million a year. Among the many research facilities are the Ohio Supercomputer Center, the ElectroScience Laboratory, the Center for Human Resource Research and the Biomedical Engineering Center.

The knowledge and methods discovered and refined in the classrooms and laboratories are carried to the community in many ways through the work of alumni, faculty, staff and students.

The University's annual budget tops $1.1 billion. About 31 percent comes from state appropriations and about 16 percent from student tuition and fees.

Ohio State students can choose from over 11,000 different courses.

Students study at the Browning Amphitheatre near Mirror Lake.



More than 97 percent of the OSU faculty hold doctoral or professional degrees.

The dining halls offer a comfortable, relaxed atmosphere.

E. Gordon Gee

As president of The Ohio State University, E. Gordon Gee is determined to strengthen further the academic quality and increase national public awareness of Ohio State's outstanding education and research programs.

Gee became the 11th president of The Ohio State University on September 1, 1990.

Dr. Gee serves as chief executive officer of a university that includes a central campus in Columbus and regional campuses in Lima, Mansfield, Marion, and Newark. Ohio State's Columbus campus includes medical, cancer, and veterinary hospitals; dental and optometry clinics; and many specialized research centers. A land-grant university, it has 19 colleges and a graduate school and is home to a statewide agricultural research and cooperative extension system. Ohio State is a comprehensive, doctoral-degree granting institution with a total enrollment of more than 60,000 students. The University has approximately 30,000 faculty and staff and an annual budget of $1.16 billion.

Dr. Gee was born in Vernal, Utah, on February 2, 1944. He received a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Utah in 1968 and a law degree and doctorate in education from Columbia University in 1971 and 1972, respectively. At Columbia, he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar and Kellogg Fellow.

Dr. Gee returned to the University of Utah, serving as assistant law dean from 1973 to 1974. He served as judicial fellow and senior staff assistant in the chambers of the Chief Justice of the United States from 1974 to 1975. He was associate law dean and professor of law in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University from 1975 to 1979.

Dr. Gee was dean of the law school at West Virginia University from 1979 to 1981, when he became the 19th president of West Virginia, a state-assisted institution with two campuses and about 20,000 students. In 1985, Dr. Gee became the 15th president of the University of Colorado, another state-assisted institution with four campuses and 41,000 students.

A recipient of a number of prestigious honors in the fields of law and education, Dr. Gee is listed among the Outstanding Young Men in America, Who's Who in Law, and Who's Who in America. He has written or co-written six books, including Information Literacy: Revolution in the Library, which won the American Library Association G.K. Hall Award in 1990 for the outstanding contribution to library literature.

Dr. Gee serves on numerous boards and commissions including the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education; the Advisory Council of Presidents to the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges; The Limited, Inc.; and the Board of Trustees of the New York Law School. In Central Ohio, he serves on the boards of the Center of Science and Industry; the United Negro College Fund; the Central Ohio Council of Boy Scouts; the United Way of Franklin County; and the OCLC higher education policy advisory committee. He is on the boards of Bank One Corporation and the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce.

As he begins his fourth year as Director of Athletics at The Ohio State University, it is clear that in a relatively short period of time, Jim Jones has established himself as one of college athletics most capable and respected leaders.

In addition to overseeing one of the nation's largest and most comprehensive athletic programs, Jones' peers have charged him with a myriad of responsibilities both at the Big Ten and national levels.

Jones is chair of the Big Ten Athletic Directors and serves on several key conference committees, including the Television Promotions Committee, the Compliance Committee and the Expansion Committee. He was a member of the search committee that selected current Big Ten commissioner Jim Delany.

At the national level, Jones currently is Vice Chairman of the Division 1 College Athletic Directors and will be elevated to chair of that group next year. He is also second vice president of the National Association of College Athletic Directors and will be installed as its President in June.

Additionally, Jones sits on two of the NCAA's most prestigious and important committees — the Special Events Committee and the Post Season Bowls Committee.

At Ohio State, Jones administers a program that includes 31 varsity sports and has an annual operating budget in excess of $23 million. Each year, approximately 650 athletes compete for the Buckeyes.

Jones is just the sixth person to hold the title of Director of Athletics at Ohio State. He was named to his present position in November of 1987. Prior to his appointment, he had been a member of the OSU staff since 1967 and had held various positions, including Assistant Director and Associate Director.

The 55-year-old Jones is a native of Cuyahoga Falls, O. and a graduate of Kent State, receiving a B.S. in mathematics in 1958. He also has a master's from Ball State, awarded in 1964.

After receiving his undergraduate degree, Jones was a teacher, coach and high school administrator in northeastern Ohio for nearly six years. He left the high school ranks in 1963 to begin work on his master's at Ball State.

Jones first came to Ohio State in 1965 as an instructor in the Department of Physical Education. He joined the Athletic Department staff in 1967 as the "brain coach" on Woody Hayes' football staff. As such, he was one of the first academic counselors in college athletics.

Jones was on Hayes' staff for four years. During that time, the Buckeyes won three Big Ten titles, played in two Rose Bowls and captured the 1968 National Championship.

Following the 1970 football season, Jones was named Assistant Athletic Director under J. Edward Weaver. In that capacity, he was responsible for the grant-in-aid program, eligibility and compliance. He also coordinated team travel.

In 1977, Jones was elevated to Associate Athletic Director. In his new role, he was in charge of the department's day-to-day operation and oversaw the sports information, business and counseling offices.

Jim Jones

During his 10 years as the No. 2 man in the athletic department, Jones acquired invaluable experience while representing Ohio State at various Big Ten and NCAA meetings. At the time of his appointment as Director, he had a first-hand knowledge and expertise of every aspect of intercollegiate athletics.

Jones is extremely active in the Columbus community. He is past president of the Boys Club and the Upper Arlington Rotary. He currently serves on the boards of the Columbus Association for the Performing Arts and the Columbus Area Sports Corporation.

Jim and his wife, Linda, have two children, Bill and Lynnae.

Bill Myles
Associate Athletic Director

Bill Myles was named Associate Director of Athletics on March 19, 1985. He is responsible for overseeing Ohio State's 18 men's sports, including budgets, schedules, travel, home game administration and evaluation of the coaches.

Prior to his present position, Myles served as an assistant football coach at Ohio State for eight years. He was hired by Coach Woody Hayes in 1977 and retained when Earle Bruce took over in 1979.

Myles, 56 is a native of Kansas City, Mo. He graduated from Drake in 1962 and received his master's from Central Missouri State in 1967.

As an undergraduate, Myles played center and linebacker on the Drake football team. Since graduation, he has received two of his alma mater's most prestigious honors — the Double D Award, which goes to an athlete who later distinguishes himself in his chosen profession; and the Distinguished Service Award, the highest honor given by the Drake National Alumni Association.

Myles began his coaching career in 1962 in Kansas City as a high school assistant. In 1965, he became a head coach and during the next seven years his teams posted a combined record of 45-20-3. He was named Kansas City Area Man of the Year in 1970 and Greater Kansas City Coach of the Year in 1971.

In 1972, Myles went to the University of Nebraska as a line coach and in 1975 became linebacker coach. After four years on Tom Osborne's staff, he joined the OSU staff as tackles and tight ends coach.

Bill and his wife, Lorita, have a daughter, Debbie, and a son, Bill.

Phyllis Bailey
Associate Athletic Director

Phyllis Bailey has been a member of The Ohio State University faculty since 1956. She has served as Associate Director of Athletics since July of 1977. Her duties are to supervise the women's athletic program at Ohio State.

Bailey has played a major role in the development of women's sports at Ohio State, starting in 1965-66, when athletic competition began, to the present time, when Ohio State has 12 women's sports. A successful women's program was guaranteed in 1976, when an extensive grant-in-aid program was instituted.

Ohio State's women's teams have been very successful. Buckeye squads have won more Big Ten championships than any other conference school and consistently have competed well on a national level in a variety of sports.

Bailey is a graduate of Miami University. She taught physical education at Earlham College and at Wayne State University before coming to Ohio State in 1956. In 1959, she became Associate Director of Recreation, Intramurals and Intercollegiate Sports for Women. She joined the Athletic Department in 1975 as Assistant Director.

Bailey has served on numerous Big Ten and NCAA committees. She currently is a member of the prestigious NCAA Women's Basketball Committee.

Paul Krebs
Assistant Athletic Director

Paul Krebs is in his sixth year as a member of the Athletic Department staff. He came to OSU in 1985 as Ticket Director. In 1987, he was named assistant athletic director and given the additional responsibilities of overseeing the Promotions and Marketing departments, two of the more rapidly growing areas within the Athletic Department.

Krebs also coordinates special events such as the Buckeye Pro-Am Golf Tournament and the Buckeye Classic Basketball Tournament for the Athletic Department. He is also involved with special projects, including chairing the committee that recently selected a new Athletic Department logo.

Krebs also represents the Athletic Department in various other capacities. In the summer of 1990, for example, he traveled to Italy with members of the Columbus Sports Corporation for the finals of the World Cup, an event that Columbus hopes to host in 1994.

Krebs, 35, is also in charge of game management for Ohio State's home football and basketball games, overseeing concessions, crowd control and timing on the day of the game.

As Ticket Director, Krebs oversees a program that annually sells nearly 70,000 season football and 12,000 season basketball tickets. To enhance the efficiency of that office, Krebs implemented a new computer ticket program shortly after his arrival in Columbus.

Krebs is a native of Canfield, Ohio. He graduated from Bowling Green in 1978 and received his master's from Ohio State in 1981. While working on the latter, he interned in the OSU Ticket Office.

In 1981, Krebs was named assistant ticket manager at the University of Oklahoma. In 1982, he became ticket manager, a position he held for three years before joining the Ohio State staff.

Paul and his wife Marjori, who teaches in nearby Worthington, have a daughter, Taylor.

Archie Griffin
Assistant Athletic Director

One of the most talented and popular football players in Ohio State history, Archie Griffin joined the Athletic Department in 1985. He served two years as Special Assistant to the Director of Athletics in 1987. His chief duties are in the area of athletic fund raising. Additionally, he represents the Director's office at various functions around the state and across the nation.

Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner. He won college football's most coveted award in 1974 as a junior and then made history by winning it a second time in 1975. A three-time All-American, Griffin is the leading rusher in Ohio State and Big Ten history with an incredible 5,589 career yards. All four of his Ohio State teams won Big Ten championships and he has the rare distinction of starting in four Rose Bowls.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also is one of just two players ever to win back-to-back Silver Footballs as the Big Ten's MVP. He also was a two-time choice by U.P.I. as College Football Player of the Year.

A two-time team captain, Griffin still ranks fourth on the all-time NCAA rushing list with 5,177 yards (does not include bowl games). His 6.13 yards per carry average is an NCAA record. He also holds the NCAA record for consecutive 100-yard games (31).

Griffin graduated from Ohio State in 1976 with a degree in industrial relations. A first round draft choice, he played in the NFL for eight years, all with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Archie is married to the former Bonita Davis and has two sons, Anthony and Andre.

In August of 1990, Griffin became the second Ohio Stater to be inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame, joining his former coach, the late Woody Hayes.

In December of 1990, he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

Ohio Stadium, the unique, double-decked horse shoe structure that is listed in the National Register of Historic Places, has been the home of Ohio State football since 1922.

Prior to the 1922 season, Ohio State played its home games at 14,000-seat Ohio Field. But when the Buckeyes joined the Western Conference (now the Big Ten) in 1913, Director of Athletics L.W. St. John initiated a drive for a larger facility.

Although World War I temporarily delayed St. John's dream, the stadium campaign was officially launched in October of 1920. In one of the first ever athletic fund raisers, $1,083,000 was raised through the generous contributions of alumni, students, faculty and staff, Columbus residents and friends of Ohio State.

Construction began in August of 1921 and little more than a year later, Oct. 7, 1922, the Buckeyes played Ohio Wesleyan in the first game in the giant horseshoe. The Stadium was officially dedicated two weeks later against Michigan.

Final cost of the stadium was $1,341,000 and the original capacity was 66,210. Skeptics doubted that the stadium would ever be filled, but when an overflow crowd of 71,385 showed up for the dedication game those fears were quickly put to rest.

Over the years, through such additions as field seats and boxes and the south stands, the capacity of Ohio Stadium has gradually increased to its present figure of 86,071.

Stadium Facts

Capacity	86,071
A Deck Seats	34,524
B Deck Seats	17,305
C Deck Seats	21,520
South Stands	7,817
Field Seats	4,905
Surface: Prescription Athletic Turf
Scoreboard Installed	1984

The surface of the stadium was natural grass between 1922 and 1970. In 1971, however, artifical turf (AstroTurf) was installed, and in 1979 a second artificial carpet, this time Super Turf, was put down. Prescription Athletic Turf was installed prior to the 1990 season.

In 1984, a state-of-the-art scoreboard was installed, featuring the very latest in computer graphics. The cost of the scoreboard, which conforms to the architecture of the stadium, was $2.6 million.

In the 68 years that Ohio Stadium has stood, nearly 30,000,000 fans have passed through its gates to see 392 games — an average of approximately 70,000.

The Buckeyes, who in 21 of the past 40 years have led the nation in home game attendance, enter the 1991 season with a string of 51 consecutive home sellouts.

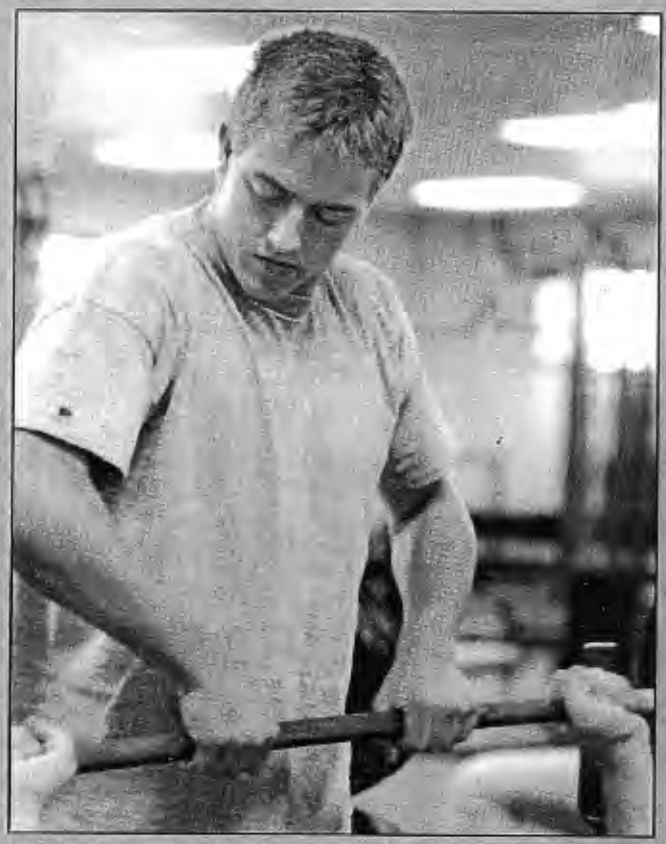
THE WOODY HAYES ATHLETIC CENTER

Dedicated in November of 1987 in memory of the late Woody Hayes, Ohio State's legendary football coach of nearly three decades, the Woody Hayes Athletic Center is one of the finest, most complete indoor facilities of its kind in college athletics.

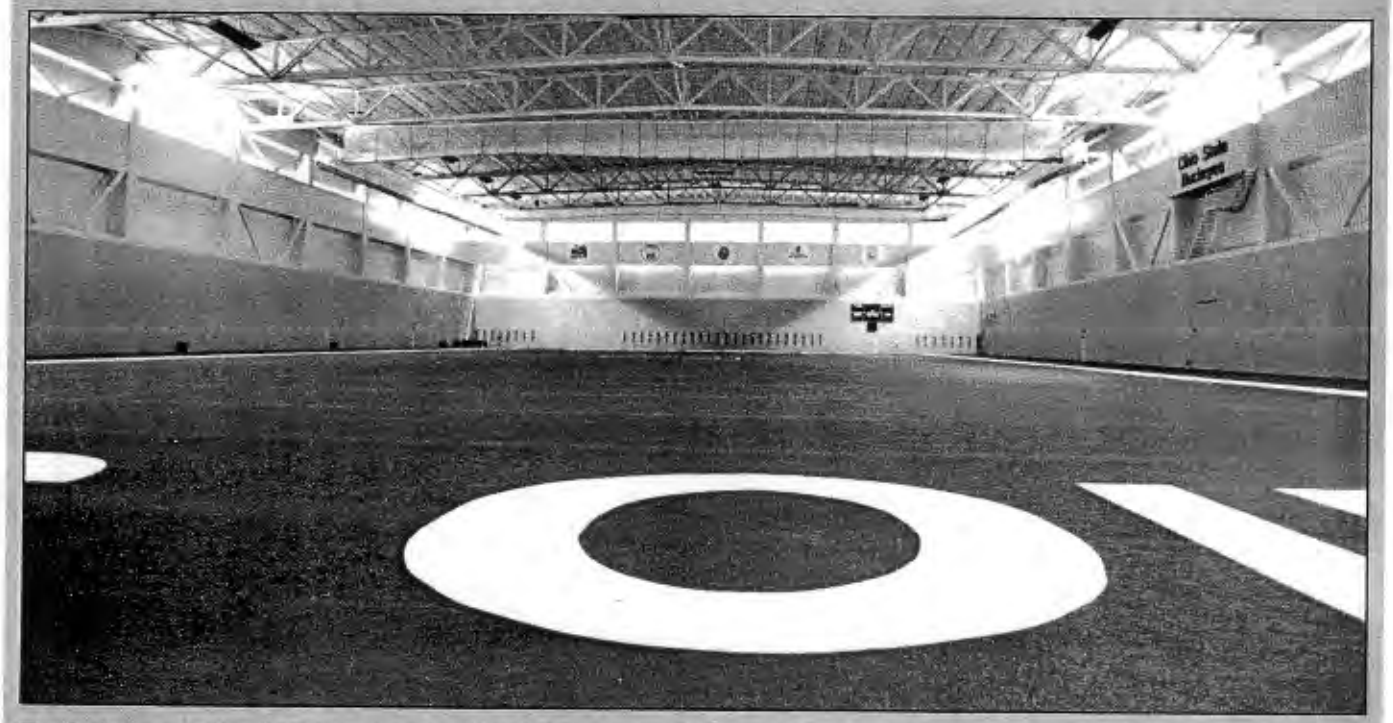
In addition to an indoor field that is 400 feet long, 220 feet wide and 65 feet high, the $10.6 million complex features an 8,000-square foot weight room that has the very latest in free weights and Nautilus equipment, a spacious training room, eight individual classrooms for specialized instruction, an auditorium for team meetings, a lounge area suitable for studying and a locker room with 131 open-bay lockers.

The size of the total building is 167,000-square feet. Its walls are adorned with Ohio State history, including pictures of all past championship squads, head coaches, All-Americans and Academic All-Americans. The trophies on display at the new building include many of the past bowl trophies, as well as a number of individual trophies.

The Woody Hayes Athletic Center is home away from home for the Ohio State players during the football season. Since it has been built, representatives from other schools have regularly visited the Ohio State campus in order to gather information for similar buildings of their own, but the Hayes Center remains the finest building of its kind in the country.



Quarterback Kirk Herbstreit works out in the weight room at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center.



The indoor practice field is covered with All-Pro Turf and has a 30-foot safety area on each side of the field. As an added safety feature, there are no pillars or posts inside the building.

The 8,000-square foot weight room contains state of the art equipment and is large enough that the entire team can lift at one time.

Each of the eight individual meeting rooms has a complete audio-visual system and is designed to allow the players a comfortable and practical atmosphere in which to learn.

The auditorium is used for team meetings and for viewing films.

There are 12 taping stations, six treatment tables and five hydrotherapy stations in the training room.

The Wall of Champions features past OSU Big Ten and National Champions.

1921 Rose Bowl

California	7	14	0	7—28
Ohio State	0	0	0	0— 0

Cal finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first ever Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924.

Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time that a Big 10 team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the very first game in 1902. It would be 26 years before the conferences would again butt heads on the West Coast (Illinois and UCLA in 1947).

1950 Rose Bowl

California	0	7	7	0—14
Ohio State	0	0	14	3—17

The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns had been called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Southern Cal	0	7	0	0— 7
Ohio State	0	14	0	6—20

Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

The lone bright spot for USC fans came when halfback Aramis Dandoy set a Rose Bowl record with an 86-yard punt return for the Trojans' only score.

Oregon	0	7	0	0— 7
Ohio State	7	0	0	3—10

Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from a yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-7 before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

1969 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	0	10	0	6—16
Ohio State	0	10	3	14—27

The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern Cal. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second period. Ohio State answered with a 69-yard drive, climaxed with a one-yard plunge by Jim Otis, and a 16-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final four yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ballover five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

Kern was named the outstanding player of the game, rushing for 35 yards and passing for 101 and a pair of touchdowns. Jim Otis and Hayden combined for 191 yards, while Simpson closed out his career with 171 yards rushing and eight receptions for 85 yards.

Rex Kern and Jim Otis led OSU to a Rose Bowl win in 1969 against USC.

1971 Rose Bowl

Stanford	10	0	3	14—27
Ohio State	7	7	3	0—17

Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over the favored and previously unbeaten Buckeyes.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground, and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and both Buckeye touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final period. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

An interception of Kern on the next OSU series set up a Plunkett to Randy Vataha 10-yard scoring toss that sealed the win.

1973 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	7	0	21	14—42
Ohio State	0	7	3	7—17

Led by tailback Anthony Davis, Southern Cal broke a 7-7 halftime tie with three third quarter touchdowns to sideline the Buckeyes. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third period, Cunningham going in twice and Davis once from 20 yards. The final tally was set up by a 48-yard interception return by Charles Phillips to the OSU 32.

The third period overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State, which dominated USC in the first 20 minutes. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. The Buckeyes' Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half, to Davis' 86 on 12.

Ohio State appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third period and a five-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with :44 showing to play in the game.

1974 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	3	11	7	0—21

Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground for the day.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third period before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the period for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining in the game by dashing 47 yards over right tackle for his only score of the day.

Greene was good on six of eight passing attempts for 129 yards and helped OSU to a 449-406 advantage in total offense. The USC passing attack, led by Pat Haden, netted 239 yards.

1975 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	3	0	0	15—18
Ohio State	0	7	0	10—17

Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final three himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Southern Cal outgained OSU 461-286 in total offense. Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin was held to 75 yards rushing.

UCLA	0	0	16	7—23
Ohio State	3	0	0	7—10

All-American quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big 10 MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, the Buckeyes held the UCLA offense to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth straight Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run to up the margin and close out the scoring.

A last ditch drive by the Buckeyes ended after an incompletion on fourth-and-17 at the Ohio State 46.

1977 Orange Bowl

Colorado	10	0	0	0—10
Ohio State	7	10	3	7—27

After Colorado jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald jumped off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes would go on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from three yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth period, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing. Ron Springs led all rushers in the game with 98 yards for OSU. Skladany, who handled all the placement and punting chores, was good on two of four field goal tries, missing only from 56 and 53 yards.

In a first-ever meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes of Ohio State and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring-strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a three yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

Clemson	0	10	7	0—17
Ohio State	0	9	0	6—15

Clemson won its 10th straight game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including the scoring jaunt of four yards, in the drive.

OSU freshman quarterback Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from four yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point kick was blocked, but Ohio State had the lead, 9-7.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and Ohio State's hopes were dashed.

The Buckeyes did win the statistical battle, outgaining Clemson 355-331 in total offense. Schlichter outdueled Fuller, 205-123 in the air and 70-38 on the ground.

Not even ranked in the pre-season polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record. But, thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the one for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

Navy	7	6	7	8—28
Ohio State	10	7	7	7—31

Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four straight bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third period.

Ohio State finally opened up a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

1982 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	0	10	0	7—17
Ohio State	3	14	17	13—47

There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh straight game and their second consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TD's as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

OSU broke the game open with 17 points during a three-minute stretch beginning at the 8:57 mark of the third quarter.

While the OSU offense was rolling up 466 yards, the defense pretty much held the high scoring BYU offense in check, allowing 371 yards.

BYU quarterback Steve Young threw for 341 yards and two TD's, but he was intercepted once and sacked four times. Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Split end Thad Jemison scored the game winner, hauling in a 39-yard pass from Mike Tomczak with 39 seconds left on the clock.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

1985 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	10	7	3	0—20
Ohio State	3	3	3	8—17

Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

The Buckeyes found out early about the USC defense. On the third play of the game, tailback Keith Byars broke over right tackle, cut to the outside and raced 50 yards down the sideline to the USC five. Five plays later, OSU had to settle for the first of Rich Spangler's three field goals.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yarder, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the afternoon.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record for receiving yardage.

1985 Citrus Bowl

Brigham Young	0	7	0	0—7
Ohio State	0	3	7	0—10

Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds.

Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with four interceptions.

All four of those intercepts came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

In addition to four interceptions, BYU also lost a pair of fumbles to the hard hitting OSU defense.

1987 Cotton Bowl

Texas A&M	3	3	0	6—12
Ohio State	0	7	14	7—28

Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Southwest Conference champion Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. The surprise defenses limited A&M to a single touchdown and a pair of field goals. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Defensively, the entire Buckeye team deserved special accolades. Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which Ohio State led 7-6.

Michael Kee made Ohio State's fifth interception a memorable one, when he ran it back 49 yards for a Buckeye touchdown that put the game out of reach.

1990 Hall of Fame Bowl

Auburn	3	7	7	14—31
Ohio State	7	7	0	0—14

Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over Ohio State.

The Buckeyes took an early 14-3 lead and appeared to have things going their way. But the momentum changed abruptly just before the half when Slack teamed up with Greg Taylor on an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play. The TD drive covered 33 yards and took just three plays.

The War Eagles kept the pressure on after intermission, scoring on their first possession, Slack and Taylor again teaming up, this time from four yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous choice as MVP, ran five yards for the first and flipped a two-yard toss to Herbert Casey for the second.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half due to a pulled groin muscle.

The Buckeyes, playing in their first ever Hall of Fame Bowl, closed out the season at 8-4.

Archie Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner. And while those two coveted bronzed statues are undoubtedly Griffin's most prized pieces of hardware, the Columbus native and Eastmoor High School graduate has a trophy case filled with numerous other tributes to his splendid four years with the Buckeyes.

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

Griffin was a diminutive 5-9 and 180 pounds, small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers and his 6.13 yards per carry still stands as an NCAA record. And Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.

Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive games. That, too, is still an NCAA record.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs, an award presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He won those as a sophomore and junior, in the process joining Minnesota's Paul Giel as the only player ever to win two. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After an eight-year career with the Cincinnati Bengals, Griffin is now an assistant athletic director at Ohio State. To this day, he remains one of the most popular and visible players ever to play for the Buckeyes.

The Heisman Trophy, presented annually since 1935 to the nation's premier college football player, is no stranger to Columbus, Ohio. Over the years, four Ohio State players have won the coveted award, which is voted on by a nationwide panel of sports media.

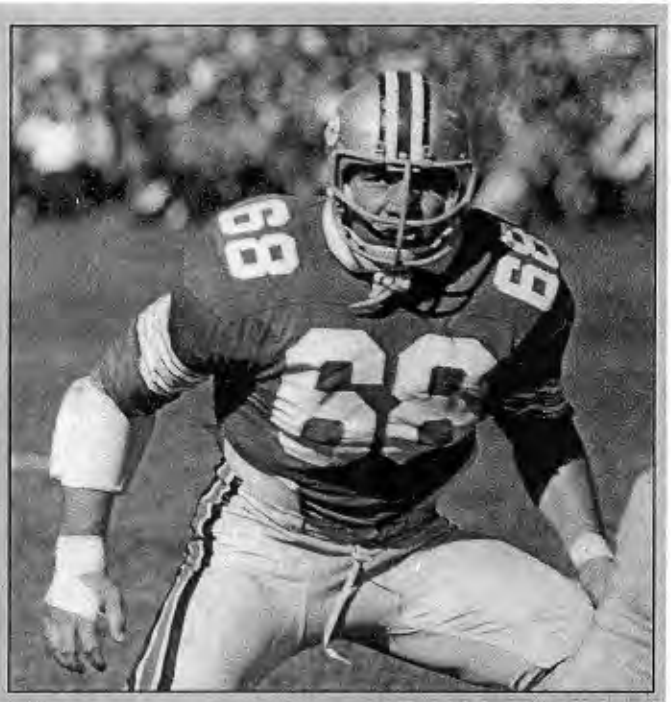
Among the Ohio State winners is All-America tailback Archie Griffin, still the only two-time recipient of the bronze statue. He was fifth in the balloting as a sophomore in 1973, when teammates John Hicks and Randy Gradishar finished second and sixth, respectively, the first and only time one school has had three players in the top six.

Les Horvath was Ohio State's first Heisman winner. He won the award in 1944, when he accounted for 1,248 yards in total offense and led the Buckeyes to a 9-0 record and the national championship.

Vic Janowicz, believed by many to be the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State, won the Heisman in 1950 as a junior. A true triple threat, he led the Buckeyes in rushing, passing and punting that year. He also kicked 23 field goals, including a 27-yarder in the "Snow Bowl."

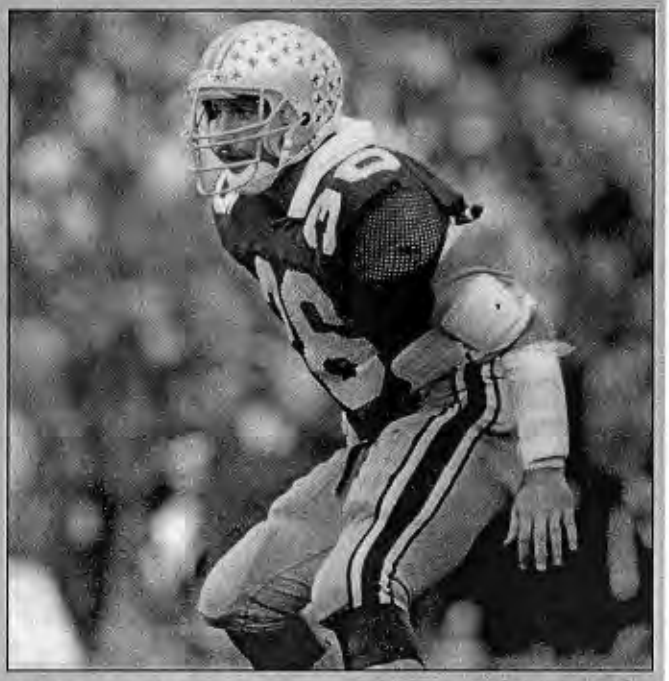
Howard "Hopalong" Cassady capped off a brilliant four-year career by winning the 1955 Heisman Trophy. As a junior, Cassady accounted for 849 yards and won first-team All-America honors for the national champion Buckeyes. He had an even better year in 1955, accounting for 964 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner, claiming the honor as a senior in 1956. Parker was a two-time first team All-America and is generally regarded as one of the finest offensive linemen ever to play college football.



Middle guard Jim Stillwagon won the Outland Trophy and the very first Lombardi Award in 1970, his senior year. A two-time All-America, Stillwagon was the heart of the Buckeyes' defense during the glory years of 1968, '69 and '70.

In 1973, John Hicks almost pulled off the biggest triple play in the history of college football. In addition to winning the Outland and Lombardi Awards that year, the talented offensive tackle finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting, coming within an eyelash of capturing all three of college football's top individual prizes.



Linebacker Chris Spielman is Ohio State's latest major award winner. He won the Lombardi Award in 1987. Spielman, a two-time All-American and the Buckeyes' all-time leader in solo tackles, was a finalist for the Lombardi as a junior in 1986.

Keith Byars

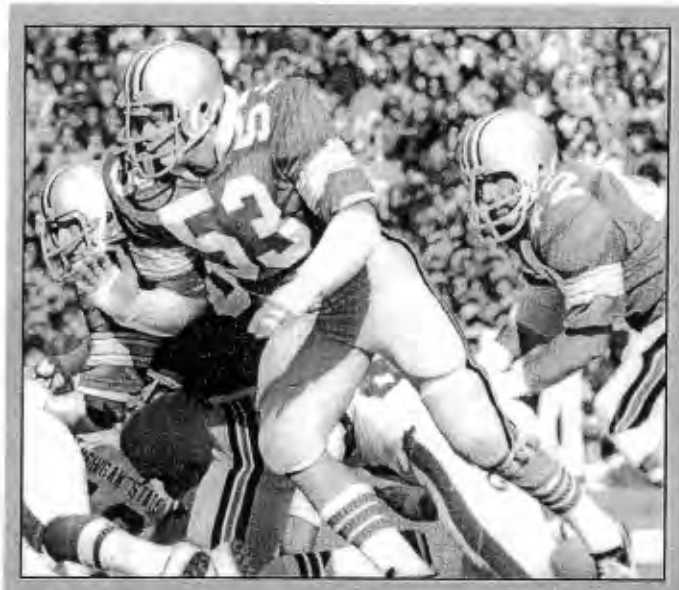
Keith Byars holds the Ohio State single-season (1,764) and single-game (274) rushing records and ranks third on the OSU career rushing list with 3,200 yards. Byars also scored 46 rushing touchdowns, including five against Illinois in 1984 on the same afternoon that he set the school rushing record. He was the Big Ten's MVP and a first team All-America as a junior in 1984.

Cris Carter

Cris Carter is unquestionably the greatest wide receiver ever to play for the Buckeyes. In his three seasons as a starter, Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His reception and TD totals are school records and his yardage figure is the second highest total in OSU history. Carter, a first-team All-America in 1986, also holds the school's single-season record for catches (69), yards (1,127) and touchdowns (11).

John Frank

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar while at Ohio State. A tight end, Frank ranks third on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. He was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983. In the classroom, John was a two-time Academic All-American and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco, he is now in medical school at Ohio State.



Randy Gradishar

Randy Gradishar was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter for Ohio State between 1971 and 1973 and was credited with 320 total tackles — 155 solos and 165 assists. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points all season long. After graduation, he was a consensus all-pro pick with the Denver Broncos.

Pepper Johnson

Pepper Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. During the 1984 and '85 seasons, he teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. Johnson is currently a starting linebacker for the World Champion New York Giants and has become one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

Tom Cousineau

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes in 1977 and '78. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stands as a single-season school record. Against Penn State, in 1978, "Cous" was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an OSU record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman versus Michigan in 1986. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. He is second on the all-time OSU tackle list with 569, three behind Marcus Marek.

Academic All-Americans also are part of the Ohio State football tradition. In 1989, offensive tackle Joe Staysniak became the 20th Ohio State player to be named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America team.

Additionally, in 1985, Ohio State flanker Mike Lanese, a two-time Academic All-American, was one of 32 U.S. college seniors selected as a Rhodes Scholar.

For 28 years Woody Hayes was Ohio State football. Between 1951 and 1978 the legendary coach took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history.

While Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won three national titles (and narrowly missed out on six others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. On two different occasions the Buckeyes won a conference record 17 straight league games.

Under Woody, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America berths. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes current head coaches Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Earle Bruce, Lou Holtz and Joe Bugel. Others include Bo Schembechler and current Ohio State Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

Hayes' lifetime record of 238-72-10 places him fourth in all-time NCAA coaching victories. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami for two.

Hayes was also a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the off-season. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes died in 1987, but his influence lives on through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. He holds a very special place in college football history.

MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA — This guide has been prepared to assist you in your coverage of Ohio State football. Every attempt has been made to ensure its accurateness. We hope you will find it an invaluable aid during the coming season. During the year, you will receive weekly updates from the Sports Information Office, designed to keep you informed about the Ohio State football team. If you find you need additional information or material, please advise our office. Specific requests should be made to: Steve Snapp, Sports Information Director (see below for address).

CREDENTIALS — All credential requests must be made in writing, on company letterhead, to the Sports Information Director. Season credentials will be mailed out two weeks before the first game. Single-game passes will be held for pickup the day of the game in the Atrium of the Woody Hayes Athletic Center.

Please remember that all credentials are non-transferrable. We ask your cooperation in allowing working media only in the press box.

PRESS LUNCHEONS — Head coach John Cooper will meet with the media each Monday during the season. This year's luncheons will be held at the Parke University Inn, beginning Sept. 2. There will be no luncheon on Sept. 23. The last luncheon will be held Monday, Nov. 18.

COVERING PRACTICE — Practices are held at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center and are open to the media, but photographers may be restricted during certain time periods. For your own safety, please stay behind the restraining lines around the field.

INTERVIEWS — In addition to his weekly luncheon and Tuesday's Big Ten teleconference (12:10 p.m.), Coach Cooper will meet with the media daily following practice. Please arrange all player interviews and all photo requests through the Ohio State Sports Information Office. Whenever possible, especially for feature-length interviews, please arrange the interview a day in advance. Ohio State players are available Sunday through Wednesday and after the game. Interviews are not permitted on either Thursday or Friday except in special circumstances. The best time to get the players is either before or immediately after practice.

TELEPHONES — There are several phones available in the Ohio Stadium Press Box, but anyone needing to install a private line should call the University Phone Services at (614) 292-8648.

RADIO REPORTS — In accordance with Ohio State and Big Ten policy, radio stations are reminded that live reports while the game is in progress are not permitted. Violators of this policy will have their credentials revoked. It is permissible to do live reports between quarters.

SIDELINE POLICY — Photographers are reminded that credentials must be displayed on the arm at all times. Additionally, photographers must stay behind the 12-foot restraining line and out of the bench area. Photographers are asked to kneel at all times.

SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE — 124 St. John Arena, 410 Woody Hayes Dr., Columbus, O. 43210; Phone (614) 292-6861, Fax 292-8547, Press Box 292-1812.

Former Buckeye tailback Jeff Logan (1974-77) will spend this season in the radio booth, assisting Terry Smith with the broadcast of Ohio State games on WBNS.

The Ohio State Radio Network

All Ohio State football games are broadcast by WBNS Radio, the flagship station for the Buckeyes' 48-station, state-wide network. Terry Smith is the play-by-play announcer and will be joined this year, for the first time, by former Buckeye tailback Jeff Logan, who will take over as color analyst. Randy Ford is the network's sideline reporter.

Method for Determining Big Ten Participant in Rose Bowl Game

1. Designation of Representative Team
The Conference representative shall be determined by the following procedures:

A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games (tie game counts ½ win and ½ loss).
B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.
C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between these two teams shall represent the Conference.
D. If there is still a tie, or if the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played.
E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.
F. If there are more than two teams tied for the championship, the same selection procedure shall be followed with the following exceptions:
   1. If three teams are tied, and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.
   2. If three teams are tied, and if two of the three teams defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated, and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three teams are tied, and there is a tie game between two of the three teams, or if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played.
   4. If three teams are tied, and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   5. If three teams are tied, and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:
   1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the representative.
   2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated, and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   4. If there is a tie game between two of the four teams, or if two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played.
   5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   6. If all four teams share the same winning percentage of allgames played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

Rule Changes for 1991

The major rule changes for 1991 are:

1. Goal post uprights are 18 feet, six inches, inside to inside. (Formerly twenty-three feet, four inches)

2. Rib pads and back protectors shall be totally covered.

3. If a tie breaking system is used, captains may select offense, defense, or end of field. The defense is now permitted to score during such extra periods.

4. Fourth-down fumbles, prior to a change of team possession, may be recovered and advanced only by the fumbling player. The defense may advance any ball fumbled beyond the neutral zone on any down.

5. Following a free kick out-of-bounds, untouched by the receiving team, the receiving team has three options:

   A. Accept the ball at the in-bounds spot.
   B. Another free kick following a five-yard penalty from the previous spot.
   C. Accept the ball at the in-bounds spot thirty yards from the kicking team's restraining line.

6. After the ball is ready for play and before the snap, each substitute of team A (offense) shall have been between the nine yard marks.

7. Clipping behind the neutral zone of the offensive team will be penalized from the spot of the foul. Previously in 1990, penalized from the previous spot.

8. Spiking the ball remains illegal. Delayed acts of a choreographed, rehearsed nature that incite players and/or spectators are illegal. Acts determined to be demeaning to the image of the game will be penalized.

9. Holding and illegal use of the hands behind the neutral zone by the offensive team will be penalized from the spot of the foul. Previously in 1990, penalized from the previous spot.

10. Split officiating crews are prohibited in 1992.

11. Microphones on referees are recommended. The Big Ten began this in 1990.

12. The "guard-around" play, i.e. "fumblerooski" is permissible only if the referee is notified prior to the snap.
